The "Theta Sigs" sent a request for the Bradley's autographed book to Maj. Steve Mulkey at the Pentagon. Mulkey, a West Point graduate who did graduate work in journalism at the University of Wisconsin a few years ago when he lived at University Houses, was on Bradley's staff. But by the time the letter arrived. Mulkey, his wife, and month-old son Wade were in Paris where Mulkey has been assigned to Eisenhower's staff.

But the request didn't get lost. It fell into the hands of another for letting the book have a part of the madison group his "cortain the getaway car.
