SPOTLIGHT

Dixie and Drama

TIP O' THE MORNING: Watch for a set of recordings of Bible readings by Ronald Colman.

Two changes in schedule for the musical and dramatic attractions at the Club Hollywood will go into effect this week.

The Little Hollywood Players will open their second week of "Murder in the Old Red Barn" at 8:30 tonight, and hereafter will present their hilarious melodramas and mad vaudeville at 8:30 p. m. Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays.

Beginning Sunday, "Dixie Bash" will become an evening program after a year as a matinee attraction. Rod McDonald's jazz artists will play from 8 to 11 p. m.

Scoots report that "Murder in the Old Red Barn" is as funny as the Players' first show, "10 Nights in a Barroom," and that the between-the-acts frolicking is better than ever.

DISC OF THE DAY: If you have a violinist friend to whom you'd like to give a fine gift for Christmas, consider seriously this item: Beethoven's "Violin Sonata No. 10, in G," played by Tessa Spivakovsky and Rudolf Firkušný. . . . But why limit it to violinists? Anyone who loves good music will appreciate the moving performance of this Columbia LP.

WILDE SHOW: Twenty-four paintings and 11 drawings by Prof. John Wilde of the University of Wisconsin art education department will be exhibited in Milwaukee next month.

The works will be on display from Dec. 1 through Dec. 29 at the Bresler galleries, 729 N. Milwaukee st.

Some of the paintings and drawings will be loaned by owners of private collections. They are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Berger, Frank Harriott, Mrs. Gardner Cowles, Karl Priebke, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Jefferson, and Lincoln Kirstein. One drawing will come from the Wadsworth Athenaeum.

CHORAL CONCERT: More than 400 University of Wisconsin students will take part in a Christmas choral concert to be given at 4 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 9, in Luther Memorial church.

David Blanchard, organist, will play a preliminary recital at 3:45 p. m.

Conductors will be Profs. Helen Blotz and Paul Jones and Don Weiss, graduate assistant in the university music school. Appearing will be the University chorus of 100 voices, the cappella choir with 45 members, the 50-voice women's chorus, the men's chorus of 35 voices, vocal soloists, organists, a harp ensemble, and a brass quartet. The concert will be free.

SCREEN: For Christmas fare, the Capitol theater has booked "I'll See You in My Dreams," starring Doris Day and Danny Thomas. And for New Year's Day it will have "Distant Drums," with Gary Cooper.

PIANO RECITAL: The Musical Hour club, composed of piano pupils of Bessie Lavin, will entertain members' mothers with a musical program at 1:30 p. m. Friday in the Community center.

Besides piano music, there will be an accordion solo by Edward Bilisic and a violin solo by Joyce Sams, accompanied by Elaine Sams.

Pianists will be Robert Lexovold, Debra May Bernard, Jane Shapiro, Stuart Shapiro, James Wahlberg, Julia Bilisic, Sharon Lavake, Karen Haessig, Mary Lu Clark, Patricia Kanev, John Kanev, Sandra Geier, Susan Charnley, Gloria Brusson, Margaret Jean Gruen, Alinda Elliott, Donald Gilpin, Judy Webber, Elaine Sams, Joyce Sams, Mary Lee Lavake, Nancy Husted, Doris Rae Leary, James Housel, Sylvia Fitch, Beverly Magee, Mary Ellen Evans, Connie Bjerk, Judy Baumann, Carol Jean Evans, Patricia Heibel, Susan Bump, and Barbara Burk.
