Bill Douglas's

Names in the News

TIP OF THE MORNING: Kay Armen, now singing at a Las Vegas club, may detour to Hollywood for screen tests before returning to "Stop the Music" on Dec. 16.

Bob DeHaven, master of ceremonies at tonight's football banquet, is a Minneapolis radio star who started his career in Madison. He was a Haresfoot club performer and WIBA announcer.

PETERSON

Besides being a lecturer, Roger Tory Peterson is famous as an artist. He'll give an illustrated lecture on "The Riddle of Migration" at 8 tonight in West high school auditorium. His paintings and photographs are used extensively in book illustration.

When Lon Chaney, Jr. appeared in "Born Yesterday" at the Parkway theater a couple of years ago, he asked "How old does a guy have to be before he isn't 'Junior' any longer?"

The answer seems to be "about 41." That's his approximate age now, and on Monday word came that he will be billed as Lon Chaney—without the "Jr."—in "High Noon," which stars Gary Cooper.

Cooper's real name, incidentally, is Frank Cooper. It was changed to Gary by an agent, who picked the name out of a newspaper story about Gary, Ind.

Gabriel Heatter's broadcasts will be sponsored once a week—Tuesdays—by the Credit Union National assn. of Madison beginning Jan. 1.

The life story of Harry Houdini, great Wisconsin-born magician who died 25 years ago, will be filmed by Paramount.

Tommy Dorsey and his band took off Thanksgiving day for an eight-week tour of Brazil for a fee of $200,000, said to be the highest ever paid an act in South America.

"THE MESSIAH": Robert Tottingham, Madison basso, will be one of the soloists in a presentation of Handel's "The Messiah" at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in Lindsay gymnasium of Wayland academy, Beaver Dam.

He will also sing the bass arias in the Madison Civic Music assn.'s annual production of the oratorio here Sunday, Dec. 16.

Other soloists with the Beaver Dam Oratorio chorus will be Joan Oppelt, Wayland conservatory, soprano; Mrs. A. E. Hatch, Fond du Lac, contralto, and Arthur Lehman, Beaver Dam, tenor.

Mrs. Hedwig S. Klinefelter, Northfield, Minn., pianist, and George Heister, Wayland conservatory, organist, will be accompanist. David Proctor, Wayland conservatory, will play an organ prelude.

Chorus members live in Beaver Dam, Burnett, Fox Lake, Horicon, Juneau, Randolph, and Waupun.

Admission will be free; an offering will be taken.

TODAY'S QUOTE: "Happiness comes when you have all you need but not all you want"—The Old Master.

TOP TUNES: Most-requested tunes on Madison music machines last week, as reported by Leon Peterson on WISC's "The Big Eight," were in this order:

"Down Yonder" ... "Slow Poke" ... "Undecided" ... "Sin" ... "Cold, Cold Heart" ... "Hey, Good Looking" ... "Because of You" ... "Shrimp Boats."

ART: A representative collection of American paintings is being exhibited in West Berlin, the first such show since V-E days. The display consists of 15 works of the 18th and 19th centuries and 50 by contemporary artists.

FILM FARE: George Fisher, substituting for State Journal Correspondent Edith Gwynn, reports from Hollywood ...

Dick Contino has now started the final 30 days of his prison sentence, and gets out two days before Christmas.

Ever hear of "Schlim-Schlam" music? That's just one more strange item in Stanley Kramer's first technicolor picture, "The 5000 Fingers of Dr. T," and Frederick Hollander has turned in the music for 15 "Schlim-Schlam" songs.

An Italian movie mag's beauty poll puts Rita Hayworth in first place, followed by Barbara Stanwyck.

Unusual project by Stanford university drama classes: They'll see "A Place in the Sun" and then each student will develop an alternate ending to the story. Director George Stevens will act as final judge in awarding special prizes for the best endings.

Susan Cabot drops out of "Red Ball Express" and moves into "Claim Jumpers" at Universal.

Diana Douglas telephoned from Bombay, yet, with the information that she'll star in "Siesta," to be filmed in Spain and backed by a group of Spanish exhibitors, "Siesta" will be filmed in both English and Spanish. The ex-Mrs. Kirk Douglas finishes the week and then flies home to be with her children for the holiday season.

In case you're still eating warmed-over turkey, consider the plight of Rod Cameron. He's trying to get rid of steaks from a 500-pound cow elk bagged at Boise, Ida.

Viveca Lindfors will star in "Joan of Lorraine" on stage of the Burgh theater in Vienna next spring, making a movie at the same time.

Director Mervyn LeRoy almost lost his temper trying to get the stage quiet for a scene in "Lovely To Look At," which stars Kathryn
