WHEN HOWARD FRIED was a civilian instructor at Truax Field, he lived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Straus.

Marshall, as you know, has been active for a long time in the Madison Civic chorus, the Zor Shrine Chanters, and other choral groups, and has appeared often as a baritone soloist. (In fact, he'll be a soloist in "The Messiah" on Dec. 16).

Fried was interested in music, but had never done much about it, so he went with Straus to a rehearsal of the Civic chorus. That was in 1942.

His interest grew, and he joined the chorus, and began studying voice. He learned so rapidly that Dr. Sigfrid Prager, the chorus' conductor, selected him as a soloist for "The Messiah" in December of 1943.

Fried had only one number, but this department reported that the audience regretted the fact it didn't hear his excellent tenor voice in more numbers.

After World War II, Fried returned to his home in New York City.

The Strauses didn't hear from him again, until Mrs. Straus was listening to Arthur Godfrey's "Talent Scouts" one night—and there was Fried. He not only sang; he won the weekly competition.

Straus wrote him, and Fried replied that he had continued his musical education and was studying at the Metropolitan's school.

Then, a couple of days ago, another letter came from Fried.

This one said he would be in Madison.

He will be at the Wisconsin Union theater tonight in the tenor role of Dr. Blind, the lawyer, in "Fledermaus"—and Marshall Straus, at last reports, was still trying to find tickets. The show has been a sell-out for weeks.

FREQUENCY CHANGE: WFOW's frequency change came through Thursday, and the station immediately switched to its new assignment. You'll now find it on 104.1 megacycles.

* * *

NEW PROGRAM: "Let There Be Light," a weekly program produced by the broadcasting and film commission of the National Council of Churches, will be heard weekly on WISC and WISC-FM starting at 10:15 p. m. Saturday.

The series will relate and dramatize the cooperative work of 30 Protestant, Orthodox, and Episcopal denominations in the fields of foreign missions, Christian education, women's work, and overseas relief and reconstruction.

AT WAUKESHA: The Waukesha Symphony orchestra will give its second concert of the season at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday in the Waukesha high school auditorium. Milton Weber will conduct Barber's "Essay for Orchestra," Tschaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite," Strauss' "Death and Transfiguration," and Copland's "Rodeo."

FROM HOLLYWOOD: George Fisher, substituting for Edith Gwynn, writes from the film capital . . .

No. 1 money-maker of the year is "King Solomon's Mines," according to Showmen's Trade Review's national poll of exhibitors. The results to be announced next week will list "Show Boat" in second place, making M-G-M a smiling place.

"Fixed Bayonets," proves that old titles quickly die. Starring Richard Basehart, Gene Evans and Michael O'Shea, and with nary a woman in the cast, this picture was rushed into production under the title, "Old Soldiers Never Die." Remember? By implication this movie is a powerful bid for peace.

When Bob Hope broadcast from Camp Atterbury, Ind., several servicemen in the audience were the same persons visited by Hope and company in Wonson and Taegu in 1950. Marilyn Maxwell, Gloria Grahame, Jan Sterling, Susan Morrow, and Mary Murphy accompanied the Hope troupe on the Indiana junket.

It was three years ago that William Talman came out here from Broadway and signed at RKO. Having seen what he could do, we predicted stardom for the actor, but, as frequently happens, he was given little opportunity for some time. Now he's attracted a lot of attention in his role as an honest policeman in "The Racket," and gets co-star billing in "The Korean Story", with Bob Mitchum and Ann Blyth.

After 23 years in movies, Millard Mitchell gets kissed for the first time in "My Six Convicts", and was coached for the scene by Anthony ("Valentino") Dexter, who's still a newcomer on film.

Robert Ryan's so fascinated by his baby daughter he bought himself a complete photographic outfit to record her progress.

Gary Merrill's mother, Mrs. Hazel Merrill, and his aunt, Marian Caldwell, are house-guesting with Gary and Betty Davis for the holidays. The first thing they saw when they arrived from Westbrook, Me., was a special showing of "Decision Before Dawn."

Ran into Tony Martin in a men's store buying a tie and having wrapped as a gift, for himself! He says this is the only way he gets birthday presents, since he was born on Christmas day.

15th Tax Clinic Opens Today in Milwaukee

The 15th annual Tax Clinic, sponsored by the Milwaukee chapter of the Wisconsin Society of Certified Public Accountants (WSCPA), will be held today in the Milwaukee Elks club.

About 40 Certified Public Accountants from Madison will attend the meeting, according to Gordon G. Volz, 284 Kensington dr., president of the WSCPA.

H. D. Kuentz, 28 Paget st., director of the Wisconsin department of taxation, will be one of the speakers at the one-day meeting.

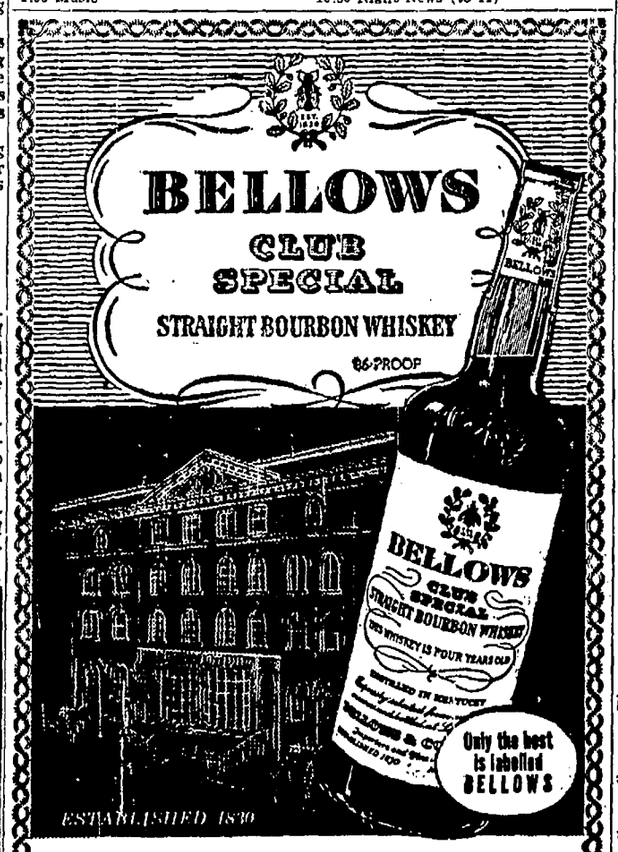
Permits for 74 TV Towers Issued Here in November

Building permits issued in Madison last month included 74 television towers at a total cost of $9,975, Inspection Supt. Ray F. Burt reported Thursday.

November permits numbered 214, representing a value of $404,270, compared with 187 permits issued in November, 1950, value $465,633.

The month's authorizations included 35 single family homes, valued at $282,000, bringing the year's total of one-unit houses to 467.

Among the November permits also were one 4-family house, $20,000; 65 residential alterations, additions and repairs, $30,615, including eight conversions of single family units to multiple units; 18 private garages, $18,000; two offices, $650; one store, $28,000; and 18 non-residential additions, alterations and repairs, $20,030.



This is a thoroughbred among Kentucky Bourbons—mellow, mature and of unmistakable excellence. It is typical of the offerings which have enabled Bellows to gain and hold wine and spirits leadership since 1830. Our century-old policy of offering the finest quality products at a moderate price has never altered.
