Radio Observes Its 50th Year

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12. (AP) It was just 50 years ago today that Guglielmo Marconi sent the first radio signal across the Atlantic Ocean.

The Federal Communications Commission marked the golden anniversary of inter-continental radio with a few observations on what 50 years have wrought.

It said:

More than 700,000 individuals now are authorized to operate radio transmitting equipment.

The United States reaches out to more than 82 foreign countries, plus its own territories, by radio telegraph, and to 88 countries by radio telephone.

There are 4700 radio broadcast stations in the United States, 32,000 aeronautical stations, 11,000 industrial stations, 10,000 public service broadcasters, 5200 land transportation stations, and 100,000 amateur stations.

LOOKING AND LISTENING

Bing Crosby Eyes TV Show but Is in No Big Hurry

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 12. (AP) Television viewers will be seeing Bing Crosby, the Ole Groaner himself, on their home screens. But not right away.

Bing, who has never had a reputation as a chatterbox, is actually voluble on the subject of TV. He talked for many minutes about the new medium and his participation in it. But he pointed out that his debut will not be in the near future.

"I'm too darned busy with other things right now," he said, "and I haven't decided exactly what I'd like to do on television. I'll get into it some day, but not until I figure out a workable formula."

The crooner said he is a steady watcher of TV and carefully eyes the triumphs and errors of the performers.

"It's a tough go," said Bing, commenting on one well-known comic. "He can have a couple of swell shows and the next week come up with a cruller. It's hard for him to keep up that pace.

"I think the only show that has found a fool-proof formula is the Lucille Ball-Desi Arnaz show. They seem to come up with a lot of laughs every time and the production is terrific. A lot of the other shows hit a few good weeks and then start floundering."

THEIRS ON FILM

The Ball-Arnaz show is on film and it is possible that Bing's show would be, too. It is doubtful if he would do a live telecast.

A perfectionist (and a little lazy, also), he pioneered the use of transcribed shows on the radio networks. He pointed out the value of building a library of TV shows for reissue purposes.

But Bing emphasized that he wouldn't do a weekly TV show.

"The thought of it staggers me," he laughed. "But even if I had the time to do a show every week. I don't think it would be wise. Television is a totally different medium from radio. I think it's dangerous to appear too frequently on TV. Not only do you run out of material, but you wear out your welcome with the public."

Many stars are giving up radio for TV, and I asked Bing if he would be following the trend.

"I don't think so," he replied. "CBS seems to want me to continue, so I see no reason why I shouldn't."

ON TV . . . Ten rounds of boxing between Kid Gavilan and Johnny Bratton will be shown on KNXT (2) at 7 . . . For its premiere television performance, KTTV (11) presents "The Man in the Iron Mask" starting at 7 . . . Via microwave, Sarah Churchill and Ronald Howard star in "No Time for Comedy" over KECA (7) at 7 . . . Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer appear on the Kate Smith show over KNBH (4) at 8 . . . "Frosty Frolics" goes Christmas shopping during Tviewing tonight over KTLA (5) at 8 . . . A 16-year-old boy recently released on marijuana charges will be guest on "Teenage Trials" over KHJ (9) at 9:30.

DIAL-LITES . . . An 80-year-old former Ivy College English professor returns for a visit with the "Halls of Ivy" over KFI at 6:30 . . . as little as 50¢ a MONTH PAYS ALL FUNERAL BILLS...
Learn how you can eliminate all funeral bills with the Forest Lawn Protection Plan—no matter when or where the need occurs — regardless of how little has been paid in!
You may use any funeral director . . . any cemetery anywhere in the world.
Yet — as little as 50¢ a month at age 29 (only 92¢ a month at age 46) gives you this protection! And other ages are also correspondingly low. No assessments — no rate increases!
Find out how the Forest Lawn Protection Plan eliminates funeral bills. Mail Coupon Today!
