

Bill Doudna's

SPOTLIGHT Christmas Pageant

TIP OF THE MORNING: Meredith Willson's "Music Room" will continue on NBC after the present sponsor's contract expires next month, even if the show is not sold to another client.

MAY WEIN and Jaelyn Koppel will alternate in the role of Mary in the "Choral Pageant of the Nativity" to be presented by the Madison public schools at 4:30 and 5:15 p. m. Sunday in the capitol.

Carmen Tortorici will appear as Joseph and Francis Fiore as the Angel Gabriel.

Others in the cast will be:

Angels: Bea DeHaven, Aletha Burchart, Alice Martin, Joanne Watson, Rowena Anderson, Nancy Drought, Janice Krome, Patricia Meany, Charlotte McVicar; herald angels: Margaret Brigham, Lulu Donovan, Emma Lou Fischer, Blanche Genske, Peggy Mounsey, Dolores Walker, Barbara Zeman;

Kings: Fred Franke, Richard Josephson, Donald Gothard, Roland Smith, Gilbert Pond, Peter Guzzetta;

Shepherds: Peter Cash, Paul Cardarella, Clarence Bosben, Loren Tipler, Robert Soule, Kent Selgel, John Roberts, Wayne Jollivette, Terry Turner, Harley Kiagos, Roland Cook.

Members of the West band will make up a brass quartet which will announce the beginning of the pageant after the musical prologue. They are Herbert Scharze, William Howard, Robert Reutes, and Nello Lansdowne.

Members of high school bands who will act as ushers are:

Central: Bruce Finn, Kenneth Schewe, Jerry Carey, David Middleton, Robert Parr, Merle Menion, Tom Spees, Charles Amera, Eugene Anderson, Peter Corniglia, Jerry Doran, Victor Moyer;

East: John Chare, Douglas Dierck, Walter Ferguson, Barclay Gilpin, William Habich, Pat Kelleher, John Klergaard, Terry McGraw, Leon Orvold, Thomas Paynter, Richard Wettstein, and Jack Winters.

PIANIST: Pierre Saneau, French pianist, will give one of his first American concerts in Madison on Mar. 13. The artist will come to the United States on an exchange basis between this country and France. He will play in Madison at Beth El temple auditorium under auspices of the Beth El men's organization.

The Beth El Temple Photo club will sponsor a photographic exhibition in the temple library beginning Friday night. It will be open to the public from 7:30 to 9 p. m. Friday and daily thereafter for 10 days.

DISCS OF THE DAY: Columbia has reissued, in LP form, two albums of Schumann by Lotte Lehmann, with piano accompaniment by Bruno W. Alter. They are "Dichterliebe" and "Frauenliebe Und Leben." Mrs. Lehmann's voice reproduces exceptionally well in these records originally made when she was at her height as a dramatic singer. The accompaniment, however, is weak.

CHRISTMAS PARTIES: Oscar Mayer and Co.'s annual Christmas party for children of its employees will be held Saturday at the capitol theater, with shows at 9 and 11:30 a. m. . . . The carpenters' union and its auxiliary will have a party for members and children at the same theater Saturday, Dec. 22.

HAWAII CALLS: Dr. Morris Wee, former pastor of Bethel Lutheran church, may speak on the Mutual network's "Hawaii Calls" when he arrives in Honolulu from In- donesia. Robert C. Zimmerman suggested the idea to Mutual officials, who have notified him that Dr. Wee's appearance has been recommended for program placement. He is due in Honolulu about Jan. 15.

ARTS AND CRAFTS: Six Madison artists are represented in a Christmas sale of arts and crafts at the Open studio, 404 E. Wisconsin ave. Chicago. They are Aaron Bohrod, Alfred Sessler, Santos Zingale, Donald Anderson, Dean Meeker, and Warrington Cole. Forty-five other Wisconsin artists also have works on display.

$18,000 Damage Suit Settled by Stipulation

After two days' testimony, an $18,000 traffic accident injury suit started by Merton S. Gunnelson, 2201 Oakridge ave., was settled by stipulation Wednesday in circuit court for an undisclosed amount.

Gunnelson was a passenger in a car driven by George M. Halverson, 540 1/2 W. Washington ave., when it collided Aug. 8, 1950, at Highway 30 and N. Fair Oaks ave. with a car driven by Carl L. Derke, 2738 Commercial ave.

Attorneys refused to reveal the amount of the settlement. Also named defendants in the case were Halverson's and Derke's respective insurers, the Cheese Makers Mutual Casualty Co. and the Home Mutual Casualty Co.
