

TIP OF THE MORNING: A revival of the World War II song, "One Dozen Roses," appears to be in the making.

FINAL ballot in The State Journal's annual radio poll will be published on Sunday. It will have 16 classifications, with five nominees in each group.

The nominees whose names will appear were chosen by State Journal readers in the first section of the poll, conducted over the last two weeks.

We tabulated all these votes, giving each nominee a score on the basis of his or its position on each list.

Ballots must be returned in time to reach this department by Saturday, Dec. 22.

LITTLE HOLLYWOOD PLAYERS: Despite good attendance at the last performances, the Little Hollywood Players have ended their engagement at Club Hollywood.

CHILDREN'S PLAY: "Hansel and Gretel" will be repeated by the Madison Theater Guild at 10 a. m. and 2:15 p. m. Saturday in East high school auditorium.

Parent-Teacher associations will furnish supervisors for the Saturday showings. They are: Morning: Mrs. Stanley Mockrud, East Side movie chairman.
