LOOKING AND LISTENING

New Year's Eve Date With Wife to Cost Bandleader

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. For the first time in 16 years, the easy-to-listen-to rhythms of Russ Morgan and his orchestra will not be heard either in person, or on radio on New Year's Eve. The popular band leader is going to entertain his wife during the annual celebration and not the public, and in order to do so, had to turn down a one-night offer from a Southern California ballroom of $3500.

"Every year, for the past 16, my wife has had to sit by watching everyone else have fun, while the band entertained," he said, "so this year, I made up my mind that this was going to be her night."

Morgan, whose voice sounds almost like a musical instrument, was born in the hard coal fields of Pennsylvania and was at one time a coal miner himself. His slogan, therefore, is very appropriate, "Coaldust to Stardust."

At the present time, a book is being written about the genial dispenser of danceable rhythm, using his slogan as the title.

Russ is a big fellow, and as he put it: "I was 15½ pounds, April 19, 1904 at 3:03 a. m., and I bet I looked like a turkey."

Besides presenting Music in the Morgan Manner, which is very easy to take, Russ is the composer of many song hits. Among some of the most popular are "Does Your Heart Beat for Me?", "Somebody Else Is Taking My Place." "So Tired," "Sweet Eloise," "So Long," "Homespun" and "Flower of Dawn.' This latter is his favorite, which didn't become a hit until just recently. It has been recorded by Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra with the unusual addition of 28 strings.

ON TV . . . So that Southland Tviewers may see what happens to their contributions to Santa's Sub-Station sponsored by KTTV (11) an hour-long tour will be shown tonight at 7:30. . . Victor Young will be the guest of honor on "Young Musical America" over KLAC (13) at 8:30 . . . Memorable scenes from five famous movies will be seen on KNTX's (2) "Salute to Samuel Goldwyn's tonight at 8:30 . . .

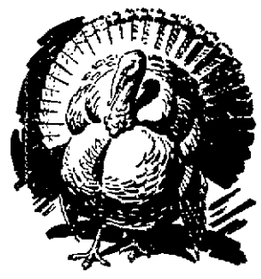
They're buttermilk and corn-fed for tenderness and flavor!


You've never eaten a finer turkey than these broadbreasted baby beef turkeys. No cost has been spared in making them tender, juicy and flavorful. By special feeding and not allowing them to run, we have maintained the same fine quality as in the past, for your eating pleasure! We have both hens and toms. Order early. Insure the success of the occasion by serving a fresh-dressed bird.
