Joyful Hour, Disney Show Christmas Video 'Musts'

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. Two special Christmas shows are featured tomorrow for Tviewers, with the showing of "The Joyful Hour" on all television stations, and the special Walt Disney Christmas Show from KNXT (2) at 3 o'clock. Every station in California has scheduled the program, "The Joyful Hour," and a total of 101 outlets out of 108 in the nation will make the special showing.

Actress Ruth Hussey portrays Mary, mother of Jesus, and Nelson Leigh plays Joseph in this Biblical drama which is expected to reach nearly 50,000,000 viewers. The cast also boasts Pat O'Brien and his family.

Widely acclaimed following its first presentation at Christmas time last year, the religious drama of the traditional Christmas story depicts scenes of the Annunciation, the Visitation and the Nativity.

The program will be seen at the following times and stations: KNXT (2) at 6 p. m.; KHJ (9) at 6:30; KTTV (11) at 11:15 a. m. and 8 p. m.; KLAC (13) at 8; KECA (7) at 10:30 a. m. and 10 p. m.

Probably one of the most expensive television shows to date is the hour-long Walt Disney Christmas show which will be Tviewed over KNXT (2) at 3 o'clock this afternoon, brought to you at an approximate cost of $250,000.

Special attention is called to little 3-year-old Vicky Churchill, who is the "scene-stealer" of the production. Vicky forgot her lines, and instead of cutting the cameras and starting over, they let her ad lib her way out of it. This she does, in such a manner that you'll remember her for days to come. She is seen at the beginning of the production as a baby in a hospital bed with Santa Claus.

Disney has included all of the best scenes from his full length productions in this show, along with a revision of "The Face in the Mirror" which I feel is a bit too eerie. Over-all, however, this program should be a "must" on your Tviewing list for today.

ON TELEVISION . . . Thomas Mitchell and Fay Bainter will co-star in the Christmas Eve presentation of "A Child Is Born" during Video Theater over KNXT (2) at 8:30. . . . Two thousand underprivileged youngsters will be feted during the wrestling matches from KTTV (11) at 8:30. . . . Whimsical humor will be provided by Meredith Wilson on "The Name's the Same," new comedy quiz over KECA (7) at 9. . . . Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Rev. Eric Bloy and the story of "Christopher Mouse" will be presented during the Lee Hogan show from KNBH (4) at 9. . . . A new KHJ (9) public service program featuring Mrs. Ione Swan starts tonight at 10 (listed because it's new, but not recommended for Tviewing pleasure on Christmas Eve) . . . A special Christmas program from KTLA (5) will feature inspirational candlelight services from a local church at 10.

ON RADIO . . . The Radio Theater makes the presentation of "Alice in Wonderland" its special present to listeners tonight at 6 over KNX . . . A special broadcast of the famous Oscar Wilde fairy story, "The Happy Prince," will be featured on a "Railroad Hour" over KFI at 8:30. . . . Jean Hersholt will do the narration on the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" to be sung over KECA at 9. . . . Hymns and the stories that are behind them make up the program from KHJ at 9:30 titled, "The Angles Sing."

Q. Why is the quarter horse so called?

A. The quarter horse derives its name from the early settlers of Virginia who liked to race their horses in competition over race paths rather than regular tracks. These paths averaged one quarter of a mile. The quarter horse, a tough little 14-hand horse with short legs and body, is so knottily muscled that the little pony-like creature might weigh as much as 1100 pounds. Ranchers have found the quarter horse excellent as a cow pony for roping steers. The original sire of quarter horses was Janus, an English thoroughbred, imported between 1756 and 1780. The particular build of the quarter horse has developed through generations of breeding.

Q. When was the first Christmas carol sung?

A. Q. What is a paper blockade?

A. It it a blockade which has been declared by a nation that does not have the power to enforce it. The point to a paper blockade is that it gives the nation declaring it an excuse for taking neutral ships whenever a chance arises. Napoleon declared such a blockade against England in 1806, and England declared one in return against France. Both countries then seized neutral vessels for their own use. The German submarine blockade of the British Isles in World War I was considered by other countries to be a paper blockade.
