NEW YORK, Dec. 25. (#)

Patrolman John Tait raced alongside the automobile for a few minutes, firing three shots at two fleeing men. But their car outraced the officer's steed.

The bandits, who grabbed $440 in a holdup of a West St. bar and grill, did not return Tait's fire during the block-long melodrama near the city's waterfront.

A passerby had alerted Tait to the holdup.

Hiccupper Gets Wish, 8-Day Siege Ceases HATTIESBURG, Miss., Dec.

25. (AP) A man who bounced for eight days with the hiccups got his Christmas wish.

The long, uncomfortable siege of hiccuping subsided yesterday as 23-year-old Lewis Gardner lay as 23-year-old Lewis Gardner lay on a hospital bed.

The young fireman's weight dropped from 187 pounds to 160 during the siege. Sedatives and rest were given credif for curing him but Gardner thinks a guy from the North Pole had a hand in it, too.

Thank you, Long Beach, for our big heart and your willing nands. As the year draws to a close, Community Volunteer Office is grateful to the many patriotic citizens who have given graciously of their time and talents in order that our many youth and welfare organizations might function efficiently and to capacity.

A volunteer's only reward is pleasure and satisfaction in helping his fellow citizens, and every volunteer has a right to be proud of the countless hours he has given to his community during the past year.

Plan to make 1952 your year of service! CVO has jobs to fit everyone's capabilities and preferences, and in the performance of these volunteer duties, you will be adding to the health, comfort and happiness of your neighbors. Visit CVO at 1213 Cedar Ave., or call 70-1434 and offer your services to Mrs. Clara Andrews.
