Names in the News

TIP O' THE MORNING: Jack (ex-U. W.) Raab, Patti Page's manager, is dickering with a booking office for Miss Page to co-star with Frankie Laine in a concert troupe which would play arenas and auditoriums.

DIMITRI MITROPOULOS, conductor of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra, will be piano soloist with the State University of Iowa Symphony orchestra at Iowa City on Jan. 23. He will play Respighi's "Toccata," with James Dixon, 23-year-old Iowa senior, conducting.

Michael Curtiz will direct "The Jazz Singer," starring Danny Thomas. Yma Sumac, the girl with the fabulous voice, has recorded a second album, "Legend of the Sun Virgin."

Bob Crosby and the original Bobcats will tour England and France next summer.

Martin and Lewis are scheduled to play the Radio City theater, Minneapolis, the week of Feb. 22. They had to cancel the date last year because of Jerry Lewis' poor health.

Mrs. Van Johnson saw "Don Juan in Hell" in New York, and had this to say to Edith Gwynn about Agnes (ex-U. W.) Moorehead when she returned to Hollywood:

"Hollywood evidently never thought of Agnes Moorehead in anything but an apron and up to her neck in pots and pans. Wait till you see her in 'Don Juan!' Her clothes—her hair—everything is amazing. Looks like a glamor girl in it. And what a performance!"

ART SHOW: A reminder: Both El temple's exhibition of works by 10 Madison artists is open daily from 2 to 4 p. m. through Sunday.

20 QUESTIONS: Every week 58,000 people submit subjects for use on Mutual's "20 Questions" guessing game programs. "But too many," claims Barney O'Donnell, who sorts and checks the mail, "base their questions on approaching holidays and news headlines of the day. That's our problem."

The saga of Capt. Kurt Carlson and his ship, Flying Enterprise, is typical, O'Donnell points out.

"In the past week," he said, "we've received 1,000 cards from listeners who based their 'subject' on the captain, his ship, or the incidents surrounding the attempted salvage."

Since the program was first aired, on Feb. 2, 1946, it has received over 100,000 suggested items about John L. Lewis—"particularly about his eyebrows"—and close to that number concerning Winston Churchill. These two personalities, constantly in the news, have led the subjects' list.

"That's just the trouble," O'Donnell points out. "We can't base each program on the news of the day. People would stand a greater chance of having their subjects used if they would only base their material on more obscure events—but those which should be common knowledge."

Guest experts each week join regulars Fred VanDeventer, Florence Ricard, Herb Polonic and Johnny McPhee to play this fun-provoking radio game. Bill Slater moderates.

FROM FILMLAND: Edith Gwynn, State Journal correspondent, sends this Hollywood news...

When flu floored Nat "King" Cole the other night, Nellie Lutecher and June Christy subbed for him at the Tiffany club.

The Blackburn Twins, well-known in cafe and cinema circles will be in "April in Paris" with Doris Day and Gordon MacRae.

What paper diva read dept.: One says John Barrymore, Jr., is moving back in with his Aunt Ethel; another that he's moving out of his sister's place and into his own apartment. Mobbie Jawn doesn't "call it livin'" unless he's livin' alone.

It's been a long time since Richard Arlen, a top star several years ago, has appeared in a major film. But he's got a big part with Yvonne de Carlo, John Ireland, and Lyle Bettizer in "Hurricane" starring William Williams.

Bettler is so good in "The Greatest Show on Earth" that Paramount expects to have a hot bet in this actor shortly.

People who were at the preview of "Meet Denny Wilson" are still aghast and aghast at some of the parallels in the picture to those in the life of F. Sinatra, who stars in it. And there's much praise for his courage in playing "Danny." Besides, it's the best job Frankie's ever done.

With Paulette Goddard seemingly determined to stay in Europe for months longer, there's a chance she may star in "A Few Flowers for Shiner," the independent picture that Edmund O'Brien and novelist Richard Llewellyn have long planned pro-
