LUCIE PALMER

Lucie Palmer, St. Louis marine photographer, will show her underwater pictures at S tonight in West high school. Her illustrated lecture will be one of the "Audubon Screen Tour" series.

Mrs. Rebecca Barton, director of the Governor's Committee on Human Rights, will conclude a four-month series of radio programs this week. Her talk, "Totalling the Score." will be on WHA and the stare FM network at 2 p.m. Wednesday and on WHA-FM and the network at 7 p.m. Thursday. June Allyson and Bing Crosby won top honors in the all-American Screen Poll conducted by Boxoffice, movie trade magazine. Following Miss Allyson on the list of women stars selected by press, radio, educational, and cultural organizations and independent theater managers was Jane Wyman, with Esther Williams third. Gregory Peck was second on the list of men, with Cary Grant third. Newcomers on the two lists of top favorites were Gene Kelly, Montgomery Clift, Martin and Lewis, Ava Gardner, and Jane Powell.

Sir Ralph Richardson will head the company at Britain's annual Shakespeare festival, opening Mar. 13 at the Memorial theater in Stratford-on-Avon. The 33-week season will be the longest in history. One non-Shakespearean play-Ben Johnson's "Volpone" will be presented.
