TIP O' THE MORNING: A radio network is said to be dickering with the Fenny Brice cutate for the right to use the "Baby Snooks" characterization.

MUSIC TO TAX THE VOICE AND poise of almost any controlto was sung here Friday night by Margaret Thueneman, who did it with a vibrant tone and a confident approach. As soloist with the Madison Civic Symphony orchestra, the Cincinnati artist won applause which sounded like the output of more than the 800 persons who heard her.

The groom was less elated.
He confessed he was worried by the problem of making the $60 Britain's rigid currency regulations permitted him to take out of the country stretch over the eight days they plan to spend in France and Switzerland.

What's more, he said, he is just plain weary—"too weary to smile"—he told photographers who saw the bridal couple eff at London's Heathrow airport.
