TIP O' THE MORNING: Music by Ralph Marterie's orchestra will be broadcast from the University of Wisconsin Prom by WIBA.

ANY PROGRAM OF SONATAS as well performed as those in Music hall Monday should leave one with a feeling of satisfaction. But the concluding work, Debussy's "Sonata in G Minor," is a strange nervousness; it upsets one's thoughts and emotions; it has an aura of apprehension. In all this, perhaps, lies its strength.

Albert Rahier, violinist, and Leo Steffens, pianist, were the musicians who presented this, Debussy's last completed work, along with sonatas of Bach and Brahms. They played it with haunting beauty, and gave it the same care and craftsmanship with which the composer had blended it.

Three more widely separated works than these can hardly be imagined, even in the dancing second movement, Brahms' in A major was rich in melody and escaped lushness in the setting by the narrow line that edges genius.

Rahier, a member of the Pro Arte quartet, and Steffens, professor in the University of Wisconsin music school, complemented each other perfectly.

In their playing, they helped show the wisdom of Bach in making the violin sonata a work for two complete and separate instruments rather than a violin, piece with accompaniment.

Their playing in the gracious, lovely third movement of the Bach work was particularly fine.

Nevertheless, the complementary quality of their performance and of Bach's innovation was most evident in the Brahms sonata, in which the piano starts things moving with the violin only, an echo to bits of melody before it becomes a full partner.

THE KIDS CLUB: Beginning Sunday, "The Kids' Club" will be heard on WIBA at 7:05 to 8 a. m. Sundays, instead of on weekdays. The current schedule — 4:45 p. m. Monday through Friday, "The Doctor's Wife," an NBC serial, will take over the first quarter hour of the "Kids' Club" time, and a musical program will be broadcast from 5 to 5:15.

The children's program has been on the air since the first week in September. It consists of songs and stories requested by the young listeners.

FT. CRAWFORD: A romantic bit of Wisconsin history will be reenacted on the "Cavalcade of America" program Tuesday, Mar. 4, when Arlene Dahl stars in "Romance at Ft. Crawford." The program will be on NBC-WIBA at 7 p. m.

Miss Dahl will portray Sarah Knox Taylor, daughter of the commander of the fort at Prairie du Chien. Her father was Gen. Zachary Taylor, later president. And her sweetheart was Lieut. Jefferson Davis, later president of the Confederate States of America.

SPANISH FILM: "Locura de Amor" will be the second in a series of 14 foreign-language films to be presented at the University of Wisconsin this semester. The Spanish picture, with English subtitles, will be shown at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in 116 Education bldg.

SUMMER THEATER: The Orchard Hill theater at Devils Lake State park will open its second season at 8:30 p. m. Thursday, July 3, and will present plays Thursday through Sunday during July and August.

The opening bill has not been selected, but a tentative list of others has been made up. It includes "Accent on Youth," "Hedda Gabler," "The Importance of Being Earnest," "Payment Deferred," "The Taming of the Shrew," and "The Guardsman."

As announced earlier, the summer and the Parahoo Theater Guild, with Ronald Gee of the former organization as managing director, Sherry Abrams will be director and Prof. Fred Logan of the university art education department will supervise design and technical production.

A permanent cast of seven actors will be used, with additions when necessary.

FROM FILMLAND: Edith Gwynn, State Journal Hollywood correspondent, reports...

Current Award nominations present an ironic bit: RKO spent a fortune on the new picture "The Blue Bird," but Warner Bros. did little for the picture. "The Blue Bird" is a picture of a non-warner actress Vivian Leigh with "Streetcar Named Desire."

Both girls are now competing for the same Oscar!

Jane Wyman's new hair-do for "The Will Rogers Story" may start something. Features eight sausage curls bobbing on the back of her neck.

Dennis Day and Richard Widmark become neighbors when the Day family moves into Mandeville Canyon near the beach. Their new place has pools, courts, and stables — the works.
