SPOTLIGHT

Words and Music

TIP O' THE MORNING: The Billboard says that Spike Jones' new show (coming to the Parkway) is "spicy, fast-paced," and "out-pops 'Hella-Poppin'."

WISCONSIN PLAYERS have a new problem. When the University of Wisconsin organization wanted period properties in other years, the students would go to Sharratt's, and traffic was usually pretty heavy between the store and the Wisconsin Union theater the week before a show.

But Sharratt's is no more, and Players have to hustle all over town to get what they need. That has been the case this week, with "Uncle Harry" calling for furniture and other things used in the 1909-1912 period. They have been lucky—their own accumulation of properties filled a good number of needs.

BARBARA MOOREHEAD

Barbara Moorehead, lyric soprano from Kenilworth, Ill., will be a soloist at the University of Wisconsin Concert band's program at 3 p. m. Palm Sunday in the Union theater.

Miss Moorehead will sing an aria from "La Boheme."

Stanley Stiggen, Madison, who is the band's drum major, will be among the soloists, too, playing a harp number.

The program will include a new work by Paul Hindemith, "Symphony for Band," which has announced.

ART: Students of Arthur N. Colt at the Watertown Vocational school will contribute many of the paintings to be shown April 19-24 in Cole Memorial hall, Watertown. This will be the third annual exhibition of work by painters who live in the city or within 20 miles of it.

Thirty-five adults study under Colt at Watertown. He conducts classes in water color, oil, and sculpture.

He has conducted the Colt School of Art in Madison for more than 25 years.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Death has taken Frank "Cheerful" Gardner from the circus scene, on which he had been a familiar figure since 1903. "Cheerful" died March 16 at Los Angeles, Calif. Circus folk considered him one of the greatest elephant trainers the country ever had. He had been in Madison many times—his last appearance, I believe, was at the Parkway theater with the Polack Brothers show.

Warren Jollymore, State Journal reporter and former star of the Badger boxing team, will report on the Wisconsin-Michigan State bouts for WFOV listeners at 9:45 tonight.

H. V. Kantenborn, who was born in Wisconsin 74 years ago, will celebrate his 80th anniversary as a broadcaster on Friday, April 4. He has just returned to New York after a six-week tour of Western European defenses.

Tom Ewell (ex-CW) will co-star with Betty Field in "See No Evil" on the Robert Montgomery television show Monday night.

Orson Welles has written a play, "Fair Warning," to be considered for Broadway production.

Olsen and Johnson will join "Skating Vanties" for a six-month tour.

Stanley Kramer has bought the movie rights to Eric Knight's delightful story, "The Flying Yorkshireman."

Percy Waram, who starred in New York and road companies of "Life With Father," will have a featured role in Warner brothers' "April in Paris."

FILM FARE: Edith Gwynn, State Journal correspondent, writes from Hollywood...

Everyone's busy "casting" "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." We get at least four announcements per day. Won't print any of 'em for some time because this Betty Grable starrer can't go before cameras till late fall. Betty stars "The Farmer Takes a Wife" in May—and it has a three-month shooting schedule. Darryl Zanuck tells us no leading man yet—but Dale Robertson is being tested next week. P.S. The Grable is sporting the shortest poodle-cut in town.

Many people who befriended Renzo (The Continental) Cesana when he needed help in Hollywood, hope for his success on N. Y. T. V. They figure he'll remember and reimburse them—about $20,000 worth—when he hears tell.

Columbia has found its stinger, Gloria Grier, to star in the remake of the late Grace Moore's "One Night of Love." But Warners are still searching for a gal to play Grace in their screen biography of the diva.

Crooners come and go over the years and for no reason it just struck us that Rudy Vallee still has all his million he ever made. George Brent has made himself a dream deal with Monogram. He'll do two pictures a year there for five years and is guaranteed $250,000 for the period—plus percentages. He's also free to make outside pictures. His first starts next month and is called, "The Cairo Incident."

Nothing may ever come of it, but Burt Lancaster is determined to star himself in a musical—if no studio will put him into a sing and dance number. He's taking dancing lessons at the moment.

Penny Singleton, encouraged by her night club debut in Las Vegas, is back in Hollywood and plotting a theater tour with the same routings starting in May.

Gloria Graham is a gal with a real, zooming career. "The Great Show on Earth" turned the trick for her. Finished with "Sudden Fear", she now goes to Metro for two top roles in a brace of pictures.

About Mickey Rooney: He expects to have his Uncle Sam all paid up with those back taxes, and a couple of wives all paid up on back alimony by the end of 1952. (One of his ex's, Betty Jane Hase, gets $1,600 a month!) The Mick owns extensive property in the San Fernando Valley and is launching a housing project on some of his acres. With "Sound-off," an army picture, completed, Rooney's next will be a navy story, "All Aboard."

JUDGE HAS HEART

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — (U.P.) — Judge Charles G. Kelly suspended a $5 fine and then gave a 60-year-old man $1 after a hearing in court. Melvin Jay Reynolds, charged with trespassing on private property, said he had only 40 cents and was trying to get back to his home in Arkansas.
