Here again the tenots starred, although this did not affect the neat balance achieved by Conductor Donn Weiss.

Together, the choruses sang excerpts from "La Belle Helene" with great good humor, first-rate balance, and rhythmic accuracy. Prof. Paul Jones conducted the Offenbach music, as well as "Hello, oung Lovers" and Youman's "Hit the Deck."

Lorraine Feigenbaum and Richard Tappa teamed at the pianos for the merged choruses; they were especially good in "Hallelujah."

FROM RADIO ROW: Blanche Thebom, who'll be on the 1952-53 Wisconsin Union concert series, will be on NBC-WIBA twice in eight days-at 7 tonight on "Show Train" and at 8 p.m. next Monday on "Great Artists."

When Queen Juliana of the Netherlands addresses a joint session of Congress on Thursday, her speech will be broadcast by most networks.

Red Skelton and Lucille Ball have been elected "king and meen of laughs" by the National Assn. of Gagwriters, Ineidentally, this is National Laugh Week.
