

TIP OF THE MORNING: "Roundy" Coughlin will return to the air with his sports forecasts at 9 p. m. Sunday via WIBA and WIBA-FM.

THIS open letter from Arnie Betts, publisher of the Lodi Enterprise, appeared recently in his 'Bits by Betts' column:

Dear Mr. Doudna: My radio listening time is confined to three things, news broadcasts, Sunday night comedy starting with "My Friend Irma" and ending with "Corliss Archer" and football-basketball broadcasts.

The point has been reached at our house, that when the shooting and the killing and the other forms of mayhem begin, the radio is promptly shut off. That stuff still bounds off the 8 year old, but to the 9 year old it is feebly fascinating. The subconscious screaming and bawling that goes on in her bedroom after she's asleep we can attribute to but one thing, she's a Jew.

We screened out murder-mystery radio. We screened out murder-mystery radio. We screened out murder-mystery radio. We screened out murder-mystery radio.

I call your attention to Sunday, March 23, particularly in the "Drama" heading. Starting at 3 p. m. the so-called "Highlights" in drama were:

3:30 p. m.—"The Case of the Murdering Misses" if you prefer, "Under Arrest." 4:00 p. m.—"Death and One Equals Murder."

or if that isn't cozy enough, there's "The Corpse and the Necktie." See what I mean. It isn't hard to understand why the minds of youngsters, subjected to such a propounding of murder and death go berserk and cause them to do, without batting an eye, the sort of thing that happens to a mother, a brother and a sister in Milwaukee a short time ago.

My voice is but a pebble of sand in the desert. I know, but by golly, I'm mighty glad my radio still has a shut-off knob on it.

This department agrees wholeheartedly with most of Betts' views, but it must be pointed out that the Spotlight has often complained about radio offerings—and has not limited the complaints to mystery shows, either.

If you think radio is bad, Arnie, wait until you see what's on television.

MUSIC CENTER: Jack Penewell, long a familiar figure in Madison's music and radio life, will have a "grand opening" at his Hawaiian Music center, 129 N. Hamilton st., from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturday.

DISC OF THE DAY: Columbia has issued an LP with the complete score of "The Girl Crazy," previously unavailable on records.

MISCELLANY: Jerry Hausner, radio actor, sails for Europe this month to study act in Paris.

Christine Carson, native of Durand, Wis., will play opposite Jon Hall in "Last Train from Bombay" for Columbia pictures.

Ernie Rudisil, Jr., 19-year-old son of Sammy Kaye's drummer, has joined Blue Barron's orchestra.

Nurse Judy Price on "Dr. Christian," is the mother of four daughters. The latest has been named Nita Louise Shidler.

Johnny McPhee, regular "20 Questions" panelist, has been chosen managing editor of the Princeton Tiger, campus monthly.

The Bernard Ravitch Music foundation is offering a prize of $100 for a two-piano composition. Deadline is June 30.

Methodist Men's Club to Hear Dr. Abbey. Dr. Merrill Abbey, pastor of the First-University Methodist church, will speak at a meeting of the Men's club of the church to be held Wednesday at 8:15 in the church dining hall, 203 Wisconsin ave.
