Rabin made his debut on the program when he was 13. In the same year, he recorded 11 Paganini "Caprices" for Columbia, and the LP disc showed him to be a musician of infinite skill. When the young violinist gave his first Carnegie hall concert in 1950, critics called him "skilled beyond his years" and "one of the most gifted and accomplished talents to come along in many a year."

Michael's father is a member of the violin section of the New

He is the richly-gifted bass-baritone who sang here first with the Bel Canto trio and this season as a soloist. It's a "Who's Who" of the Highway!

If you could see a list of all the distinguished people who own and drive the Cadillac car, you would know, beyond any question, that the statement made in this headline is true.

For the roster of Cadillac owners includes literally tens of thousands of the best-known and most respected names of our day . . . men and women of recognized accomplishment and achievement . . . leaders in virtually every phase of business, of industry, and of the professions.

There is, as you would expect, excellent reason why these many distinguished motorists, with such varied personalities and interests, have long found a common meeting-ground in Cadillac.

It is because they demand superlative things from their motor cars.

They demand great beauty . . . a majesty of styling and a luxury of interior that leave literally nothing to be desired. And they have found it in Cadillac!

They demand great performance-that rare combination of power, responsiveness, handling ease and riding comfort that makes every drive a rest and every journey a pleasure. And they have found it in Cadillac!

They demand distinction-dignity and bearing that represent them as persons of standing in their own world of affairs. And they have found it in Cadillac!

Yes, and they demand economy-for even the motorist of means prides himself on his practical wisdom. And it is in Cadillac that they have found outstanding operating economy combined with these great motor car virtues.

Perhaps, as you've been reading this, you've discovered that you, too, would like to find in your motor car the wonderful things these distinguished motorists have found in Cadillac.

If you have—then come in and see us.

One look at the beautiful Golden Anniversary Cadillac-and one ride behind its wheel-will tell you there has never been a more wonderful year for entering your name in the "Who's Who" of the highway!
