WISCONSIN STATE JOURNAL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 30, 1952

TIP O' THE MORNING: Tonight will be your last chance to hear the Madison Civia Symphony orchestra this season. Its final concert starts at 8:15 in the Masonic auditorium.

NEW form of interference probably will appear Thursday on television receivers. It will be caused by amateur radio operators-through no fault of their own.

"Hams" on that day will begin using the new 21-megacy le frequency granted them by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), reports the American Radio Relay League ARRL).

"There isn't much of anything amateurs can do about it. ARRL says, "since the primary cause will be pickup of their adio signals by some internal circuits of the receiver which have been tuned to the new amateur frequency.

"This internal-receiver frequency was chosen by the television ndustry in 1945 over the protests of ARRL. Manufacturers eventualfound it unsuitable and many of them have recently changed their tandard to a channel less susceptible to interference, but millions of ets were produced with the 21-megacycle circuit.

"According to tests conducted by the engineering staff of the ague in 1948, such receivers may experience severe interference rom amateur stations in the neighborhood, even though transmitters re operating fully in compliance with FCC regulations. The 1948 ests, performed with a special experimental license provided by FCC, nowed that the only remedy was a realignment of the internal cirntry of the receiver, a modification which fortunately can be perrmed by any competent service-technician.

"ARRL General Manager A. L. Budlong has called upon all manfacturers of television receivers to see to it that suitable remedies re made or authorized in cases where 21-megacycle operation by an mateur station causes interference to a receiver using the old indusy standard on that channel. He said that several companies have lready set a policy of modifying the receiver to provide satisfactory levision reception in such cases."

COMEDY: East Senior high school will present its spring lay, "The Little Dog Laughed," at 8 p. m. Friday in the East nditorium. It's a three-act comedy about a college sophomore ho subjects her family to psychological tests.

* *

Mayis Freidig will portray the co-ed, with Roderick esse, Barbara Bruley, and Lowell Peterson as others in the amily,

The cast also will include Diane Horalck, Shirley Roth, ohn Foss, Barbara Shafer, Gilbert Splett, Peter Barrett, Shiry Campbell, Annette Landsness, Judy Ellis, Joan Kautz, Sylvia Sachtjen, Howard Field, Alice Ghering, Herbert Krogman, and Terry Woollen.

DISCS OF THE DAY: Billy Eckstine sings "Never Like this." a ballad that fits his style, and "Kiss of Fire," less his type. Both get strong delivery, with help from Nelson Riddle's good orchestra. (MGM)

Tony Russo stars on the vocal of "You." adapted from "Musetta's Waltz." on a Sammy Kaye dise. The orchestra accents strings on this one. A smooth reading of "Oh, How I Miss You Tonight," with vocals by the Kaydets," is on the other side, (Columbia).

AT BELOIT: When Vaughn Monroe broadcasts his show from Belnit on Saturday, May 10, guest vocalist will be Roberta Lee, who made such a hit on first appearance with the band that she'll be back for two more-the Beloit date and a program from the Detroit Coliseum on May 3. You've also heard her with Raymond Scott and Les Brown.

"Boy, did I have money problems!"

"That is, I thought I did, 'til Pop told me the other night that he'd started a savings account for me at the Bank of Madison. Gosh, I was thinking of all the occasions in my yet-to-live life that would require a lot of moneycollege, travel, marriage, home. I know these days that you just can't scrape up big dough in a hurry. That's why I was so relieved to know that my folks had started an account for me. Now they can make small regular deposits . . . that don't hurt their cash balance . . . the of interest is compounded semi-annually . . . and I'm going to have a nice nest egg when the time comes.
