TIP O' THE MORNING: Margaret Truman will be guest mistress of ceremonies on NBC's "Stars in Khaki 'n' Blue" on May 25.

MORE THAN 1,100 pupils from four high schools saluted Mothers' Day and National Music Week in their biennial spring music festival Sunday at the University of Wisconsin stock pavilion. They came from East, Central, West, and Wisconsin high schools to play and sing under the direction of seven teachers from those schools and Leroy Klose, director of public school music. When it was all over, and the faculty folk lined up to take a bow, the heartiest applause for the teachers came from the boys and girls themselves. This was a popular climax for the school year, for the performance showed, in detail and in mass, the proud result of careful training. The men and women responsible for the heart-filling music were Marian Huxtable and Ernest Stanke, of West; Cecile Vogelbaugh and Robert Woolen, East; Darlene McCormick and Walter Fandrich, Central; Ernest Justice, Wisconsin, and Klose. Those of us who have heard many of these concert found it the best yet, especially in the rich and even tone quality of the instrumentalists and the crystalline enunciation of the singers. With the vast numbers under each leader's baton, these were remarkable things in themselves. Such general quality would be remarkable even in much smaller groups of high school musicians. At the end, the audience—mostly parents—joined the 828-voice chorus, the 249-piece band, and the 100 string players in the final chorus of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," a gigantic finale to a thrilling afternoon.

CHOIR CONCERT: The 50-voice cappella choir of the Lutheran Student arm. will appear in an "evening of song" at 8 p. m. Friday in the Fellowship hall of the Lutheran student house, 228 Langdon st. The Rev. A. Henry Hettland will conduct. Vocal and instrumental solos also will be on the program.
ORCHESTRAS: Two Wisconsin symphony orchestras are in the news today. The Badger Symphony of Fond du Lac will be heard on WHA-FM at 9 tonight, with Kenneth Byler conducting. Barbara Byler, pianist, and Edward Mannchen, flutist, will be soloists. The program will include the "Iphigenia in Aulis" overture, Gluck; "Suite for Flute and Strings," Telemann; "Piano Concerto in A Minor," Schumann; "Emperor Waltzes," Strauss, and "A Short Overture to an Unwritten Opera," Glinka.
The Waukesha Symphony will give its last concert of the season at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday in the Waukesha high school auditorium. It will play Schubert's "Rosamunde" overture, Beethoven's eighth symphony, Brahms' "Haydn Variations," and Kodaly's "Galants Dances." The Waukesha high school cappella choir will sing.

'52 Ford Sunliner advertisement: 'For a season in the sun... and year 'round fun! This new "Top-Downer's Delight" rides as smooth as it looks. A single pull of the top control and it's "open-season" for fun and sun with Ford's smart new Sunliner! The new Breezeway Top practically disappears from sight. Its long, low lines... its 110-h.p. Strato-Star V-8, the only V-8 and the most powerful engine in Ford's field... make this the smartest buy of all convertibles. Its lower center of gravity, wider front tread, diagonally mounted rear shock absorbers and new springing "pooh-poo" the bumps and level-away curves automatically. It steers nearly 25% easier! In fact, everything about this new Sunliner is easier for you, from its suspended Power-Pivot Pedals to its easier, safer Double-Scaled Brakes. Breezeway Top up—it's a weather-tight beauty. Come rain, come snow, the Breezeway Top moves swiftly into place, locks easier than ever! And Ford's modern-design body with new hull-tight construction seals out water, dust and draft. You can see in all directions with the Sunliner's new curved one-piece windshield, big side windows and huge one-piece vinyl rear window. And, even with the top up, the rear window section zips out for that wide-open feeling. "Test Drive" the '52 Ford Sunliner. Find out why more people drive Ford convertibles than any other!
