This Picture Tells the Story

(State Journal Radio Editor)
Much of the story of a unique radio program is told in this picture. In it you see pastors of Presbyterian, Lutheran, and Baptist churches and a representative of the Madison diocese of the Roman Catholic church.

Taken on a different day, this picture would have shown you, loo, a rabbi and another Lutheran

Through the work of these six men, elergy-men representing more than 30 different Madison congregations will speak to all of Madison in a nightly program which will begin Monday on WIBA and WIBA-FM. It is "Your Pastor Speaks," and it will be on the air at 10:15 each weekday discuss everyday living and man's brotherhood in the light of his own faith. Music associated with his church will be used on each broadcast.

Without using a doctrinal approach, each will; on Friday.

This series is entirely new in Madison, perhaps new in a much wider area. While many stations have broadcast series of talks by pastors of many faiths, few if any have done so with the close coordination which will mark "Your Pastor Speaks"
