TIP OF THE MORNING: Watch for the big buildup by a record company for Singer Bibi Johns, a smash hit in Wisconsin.

AN "ELDER STATESMAN" of radio commentators — Edwin O. Hill — will return to the air Sept. 1 on the ABC network, to be heard Monday through Friday at 9:30 p. m. Hill made his radio debut in 1931, and the next year had his own five-a-week program.

Jack Gleason has signed to lead a band on Capitol records. Meredith Willson, Tony Martin, and Marguerite Piazza may co-star in a half-hour musical show next fall.

Out of Mourning

Looking very regal, Queen Elizabeth II wears a satin gown, white furs and a tiara as she attends her first evening function out of mourning since the death of her father, King George VI. She waves to onlookers as she leaves Archer's Hall, Edinburgh, Scotland, where she dined with the Royal Company of Archers (International).

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

"This is a play that every first class player would make on paper," Harry Fishbein told me the other night, "but nobody would make it at the table!"

Harry Fishbein, the famous impresario of New York's Mayfair club, never gives me a dull hand, so I always listen to him very carefully.

I suggest that you cover up the East-West cards and decide for yourself how you would play the North and South hands at a contract of six diamonds.

"You get a spade opening lead," Fishbein told me, "and you put up the queen from dummy. East covers with the king, and you win in your own hand with the ace. How do you continue?"

"I lead the queen and then the jack of diamonds."

"Both defenders follow to the first round of diamonds," Fishbein declared, "but East throws a heart on the second trump."

Take it from here, dear reader, how would you assure the contract against any distribution?

The right play is to lead a third trump to the king, discard the losing spade on the ace of hearts, and lead a low club from dummy.

If East plays low, you take a safety finesse of the seven or eight of clubs. You don't mind losing this finesse, because the top clubs will then surely clear the suit.

The finesse would actually hold, and the slam would then be on ice. If East puts up the nine of clubs, you win with the king, return the low club to dummy's queen, and then lead another club through East.

It is important to note that you are worried only about a 5-6 break in clubs.

If West has all the clubs, you can do nothing about it. If East has all the clubs, however, the safety play will bring in four club tricks.

Blackjack Discovered at Scene of Slaying

WISCONSIN RAPIDS — (AP) — Wood county Sheriff Arthur Boll revealed Monday that a blackjack had been found in a woodpile near the town of Mrs. Clara Bates, 77, who was beaten to death the weekend of June 29.

Boll said the blackjack may have been the murder weapon. If expertly used, he said, it could have inflicted the severe wounds which killed Mrs. Bates. It was sent to the State Crime Laboratory at Madison, Boll said.

Edward P. Kanieski, 33, ex-convict who reported finding the body at Miss Bates' tavern, was arrested Thursday on a charge of statutory rape of a 10-year-old girl.

He was sent to the crime laboratory at Madison for a lie detector test, but the results were not released.
