Mrs. Margaret Kuenzli said her husband, John, also refused to let her use his automobile, and had threatened her.

A hearing was scheduled for Monday in divorce court to determine the amount of support for the woman while the suit is pend-

Exactly 230 high school pupils are attending the Music Clinic at the University of Wisconsin. Shown registering are (left to right) Margaret Herman, Madison; Barbara Harck, Chippewa Fall and Eric Stensrud, Black Earth. They are being welcomed by two clinic secretaries-Nancy Jardine and Mrs. George-Ann Flaten,

THE 1952 All-State High School chorus and orchestra bega classes and rehearsals Tuesday on the University of Wi consin campus with a total enrolment of 230 boys and gir from all over Wisconsin and from several other states.

Victor Kolar, Detroit, conducts the 128-piece orchest and Stanford Hulshizer, Des Moines, Ia., directs the 145-voice chorus. The fact that 43 of the Music Clinic pupils belong both organizations accounts for apparent discrepancy Kolar is conductor of the Detroit Women's Symphon orchestra and the Scandinavian Symphony orchestra of D troit. Formerly he conducted the Detroit Symphony and wa associate conductor of the New York Symphony and Pittsburgh Sy phony. He studied with Seveik and Dvorak, graduating with higher honors from the Prague Conservatory when he was 16.

Hulshizer is head of the department of music education at Drake 11:13 Girb Tex Williams university and director of the Drake University choir.

Other faculty members are:

Roderick D. Gordon, North Texas State college, fundamentals; Charles R. Hamilton, George Washington high school, Indianap olis, appreciation;

Robert G. Petzold, University of Wisconsin, conducting; Leon L. Iltis, University of Wisconsin, and Elfrieda Hiebert, Madison Vocational and Adult school, plano;

Emil Heermann, Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, violin;

Joseph Liska, Lincoln High school, Wisconsin Rapids, viola; Margaret Rupp Cooper, Madison Civic Symphony orchestra, harp; Harry B. Peters, Fredonia, N. Y., State Teachers college, wood-

T. Howard Krueger, Elmhurst, Ill., college, brass;

Robert Pfaltzgraff, Spencer, Ia., public schools; C. L. Mikkelsen, Charles City, Ia., public schools; Hamilton, and Don Welss, University of Wisconsin, chorus sections.

TIP O' THE MORNING: The Four Aces new recording of "Should I?" should spark a revival of this oldie.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: A new farm program will start on WTMJ, Milwaukee, at 5 a.m. Monday, with Hugo "Hig" Murray, a 1925 graduate of the University of Wisconsin college of agriculture in charge. Since 1931, he has been traffic manager of the Milwaukee stock yards, and broke into radio with 5-minute stock reports on WTMJ's "Top o' The Morning" show.

Bernedine Simpson, dancer who was her film debut in "Never Wave at a WAC," playing a WAC from Wisconsin. She retired from the stage when she married Ken Englund, screen writer. Her father operates a restaurant at Waupaca. Vaughn Monroe has bought his sixth plane and named it Can-tina VI-after his daughters, Candace and Christina. James Gleason, to be seen in "The Story of Will Rogers," managed a Milwaukee stock company several years. Bill "South Pacific" Tabbert and Isabel "Guys and Dolls" Bigley may co-star in a radio musical series. Roy Rogers has become a song publisher. His first offering will be a folio of Western tunes. Monica Lewis has been added to the cast of "Break-Up," Howard Hughes' picture starring Victor Mature and Jean Simmons.

How I lost

Here's Helen Fraley's own story of a diet that took her from 295 pounds to a trim 135, and yet she never missed having 3 good meals a day. It's a heartwarming report by a woman who found new joy in living a normal life. She gives her day-by-day diet and the secrets she learned from experience-published in the Journal for the first time. Whether you should diet yourself, or know someone who should, read Helen Fraley's amazing I Am Just Beginning to Lire. It's in the August issue of the Ladies' Home Journa
