

The Sunday Spotlight

Quo Vadis Civic Music?

By WILLIAM L. DOUDNA (State Journal Music Editor)

A hint that the Masonic auditorium may not be available for concerts of the Madison Civic Music...

ize the need and to bring out possible sources of capital. Heermann letter also says: "Surely most of our art lovers gave you a sincere 'Thank you' on July 20 after reading your timely Sunday Spotlight. Together with Roy Matson, Roundy, and Alexius Baas, you are keeping up the good fight, even if it is a hopeless one."

Today's Radio Highlights

WILLIAMS TALMADGE

Special Events 2:15 p.m. — Madison Gladious Show (WIBA): Gerald Wilke, John Magnusco, Mrs. Theodore Wisniewski, H. C. Nicholls, others; Roger Forster describes exhibits.

Radio Timetable

Table with columns for WIBA, WISC, WKOW, and WIBU, listing radio programs and times for Sunday.

Statesmen Meet

U. S. elder statesman Bernard Baruch places a wreath at the base of the Franklin D. Roosevelt statue in London's Grosvenor Square.

Frustrated Swain Abducts Girl Glad Only in Nightgown

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—(UP)—A pretty 20-year-old brunette was abducted in her nightgown early Saturday. Police found her in the apartment of a former boy friend nearly 12 hours later.

State Legion Names New Judge Advocate

JUNEAU—(UP)—Paul Hemmy, Juneau, was appointed judge advocate of the Wisconsin American Legion Saturday.

Uninvited Guest Drops in at Windsor Castle

WINDSOR, England—(UP)—A glider from a test pilot's school dropped in uninvited at Windsor castle Saturday.

Trusses

Advertisement for trusses, including text about GUARANTEED 5-0276 For Guaranteed TV SERVICE and MADISON RADIO SHOP.

Table listing radio programs for WHA and WHA-FM, including times and program titles.

Table listing radio programs for WMFM, including times and program titles.

Table listing radio programs for WISN, including times and program titles.

Religion

8 a.m. — Church of the Air (WBBM): assembly of Lutheran World federation in Hanover, Germany; Bishops Hans Lilje and Elvind Berggrav.

Discussion

9 a.m.—Small World (WMAQ): Paul Sanders, Amsterdam journalist, guest.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

Drama

3 p.m. — Canterbury Tales (WHA): "The Franklin's Tale." 3:30 p.m.—Martin Kane (WIBA): Lee Tracy hunts missing actor, $15,000 in bonds.

Music

7:30 a.m. — Renfro Valley (WKOW): portion of all-day hymn singing. 9 a.m. — Devotional Music (WHA): "Cantata No. 78" Bach.

Sunday's Crossword Puzzle

Crossword puzzle grid with numbers and a list of words to be placed in the grid.

Answers to the crossword puzzle, organized by horizontal and vertical clues.

For your sense of well-being

Advertisement for Camp Support stockings, featuring a woman in stockings and text about their benefits.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

BONN, Germany—(UP)—Diplomatic sources reported Saturday that the United States had renewed efforts to mediate the bitter dispute between France and Germany over the Saar.

U.S. Tries to Settle French-German Fight

Advertisement for Betty Cass Column, featuring a woman's portrait and text about the column's content.

Advertisement for Borden's Trading Post, featuring a woman's portrait and text about the store's offerings.