At School Music Institute

PIERCE

These three out-of-state speakers will be among the experts at an Elementary School Music institute on the University of Wisconsin campus today through Thursday.

They are Hobart Sommers, assistant superintendent of Chicago schools; Prof. Anne E. Pierce, of the State University of Iowa, and Prof. Gladys Tipton, of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Prof. S. T. Burns of the University of Wisconsin will be gen-

Bill Doudna's Football on the Air

TIP O' THE MORNING: Jack Newman, WIBA news director, will do the play-by-play on the official University of Wisconsin football broadcasts this season. He'll continue on the WIBA job, too.

FIRST station to announce plans for football broadcasts this fall is WMFM. It will carry all University of Wisconsin games, both here and away; all home games of Madison East, West, and Central high schools, and some of East's out-of-town

Incidentally, Owner Earl Fessler and Chief Engineer Elmer Weisensel of WMFM have come up with some interesting television information.

"We have made checks on most makes of television sets," Fessier says, "and find that a fairly large percentage, when tuned to Channel 6 with the picture turned down and 'fine tune' used, can get most of Madison's frequency modulation (FM) stations.

"Some of the other sets will get them on other channels, after a little experimenting. "However, not all sets will get the stations because they will not reach the FM broadcasting band. "Reception is good, since the sound used by television is on FM.

"Now a use has been found for the television set on days of bad reception.

"Here's a warning: the picture tube should be turned down in such cases."

DISC OF THE DAY: "High Noon" and "Rock of Gibraltar," recorded by Frankie Laine (Columbia) . . . Two powerful Laine numbers, the first dramatic and the second humorous. This combination easily can become a best-seller.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Peggy Wood, who plays Mama (of "I Remember Mama") on television is touring Norway. She'll be received by King Haakon.

William Bendix has been offered a role in "Nile Boy," to be filmed in Cairo next year. Leon Ames is considered a play which would take him back to Broadway this fall, Billy Gray, who played Doris Day's brother in "On Moonlight Bay," will do the same in "By the Light of the Silvery

Eduard (ex-Milwaukee) Franz has signed for a role in

"The Jazz Singer," as had Mildred Dunnock. John Wayne's next picture will be "Alma Mater," in which the California football player will portray a grid coach. Phyllis Kirk will be Randolph Scott's leading woman in "Come Rincker of the college will speak

On, Texas." Paul Whiteman, Eileen Barton, and Larry Douglas will launch a musical show on ABC Sunday.

Sammy Kaye is lining up a two-month tour of one-night stands, starting in October. The band will include Jee DeRosa and Andy "Fatso" Russo.

Elliot Lawrence band and Don Cornell will play six weeks of one-nighters starting Sept, 25. They'll do combination concertdance dates. Lawrence and Cornell will complete their fifth week at New York's Paramount theater on Aug. 26.

Edwin R. Fissinger, Chlcago, has won the 15th annual W. W Kimball Prize Award of $200 with his song, "Children on a Hill." Another Fissinger song placed MBS Washington program last opening of Concordia college's May, she quoted Sen. J. J. Spark-man (D-Ala.) as predicting Gov. Adiai Stevenson's presidential nomination "on the third or fourth ballot" at the Democratic national convention.

Clifton Utley, NBC commentator. left Chicago Saturday on a three-work, round-the-world flying trip.

LUTHERAN HOUR: Prof. A. C. Oldsen, St. Louis, will begin his second year as speaker on radio's "Lutheran Hour" with a broadcast Sept. 7 from Immanuel Lutheran church, Milwaukee. The program 7 1006 will begin at 11:30 a.m. The Lutheran A Cappella choir of Mil-

George London. bass-baritone who sang on the Wisconsin Union concert series last season, will be on NBC's "Great Artists" Oct. 6. on NBC's "Great Artists" Oct. 6.

Guy Lombardo and "Your Hit Parade" will return to NBC Aug. ada, and 55 territories and other 29. countries.

Dolores Dwyer, member of a team of Olympic sprinters, is a clerk at CBS Radio, New York. Hazel Markel recalls that of her speaking. It will coincide with the
