Zsa Zsa Suggests Corinne Get Rich Mate, Forget Suit

Egyptian Plant LONDON — (U.P.) — Actress Zsa Zsa Gabor said Wednesday it

Zsa Gabor said Wednesday it would be easier for actress corinne Calvet to get a million dollars out of a rich husband than by suing another actress for damages.

Miss Calvet is bringing suit against Miss Gabor for $1,000,000 on grounds that Miss Gabor told a Hollywood columnist that Miss Calvet is not French and was born a Cockney girl in England.

Miss Calvet's parents are French, but she bas a British step-mother.

Miss Gabor denied flatly that she ever said Miss Calvet was English.

"I never said it," the beautiful calvet a manage had run as the company of the scene by Egypt's "strong factory at 3 a. m. after nightless of damage to the factory.

Machinery in the plant, they said, was not damaged as had been previously reported. Earlier estimates of damage had run as English.

"I never said it," the beautiful Hungarlan - born actress said. Hungarlan - born actress said. Naguib placed the Alexandria is bad publicity. It is much easier to get a million dollars out of another actress."

Miss Gabor, who is now married to British actor George Sanders, has been married twice before, once to a Turkish diplomat and
