SPOTLIGHT
Concert Clinic

TIP O' THE MORNING: Vaughn Monroe's show will be back on NBC this fall on a new schedule — 7 p. m. Wednesdays, starting Sept. 3. And Bob Hawk's quiz will return to CBS at 9 p. m. Mondays, starting Sept. 1.

TWO HUNDRED or more high school musicians brought the University of Wisconsin's annual summer music clinic to a happy close Sunday afternoon with a thrilling concert in the Wisconsin Union theater.

After working together only three weeks, musicians and conductors produced a program of high quality which often was as brilliant as it was amazing.

In those 21 days, Victor Kolar and Stanford Hushizer had created an orchestra and a chorus, respectively, from diverse talents and training of freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors from all over Wisconsin and from other states.

For the finale, the two organizations came together for a beautifully coordinated performance of the waltz and chorus from "Faust."

Three of the youths—Jack Schmidt, Sheboygan; Donna Ward, Eau Claire, and Michael Birke, Sheboygan—sang solo roles with aplomb and good voices. Miss Ward's mezzo-soprano was especially warm and sure.

Other pleasant solos were sung in earlier choral numbers by David Peterson, Wittenberg, and Whitman Ladd, Dodgeville. The chorus' work in "Shenandoah," simulating the rolling river as accompaniment to Ladd's solo, was one of the program's highlights.

All through, it sang with precision and fine tone and enthusiasm. Kolar's orchestra hit its peak in the rhythmically-varied "Crimean Sketches" by Spondiarov, a tricky number in Oriental mood, and the overture to "Hansel and Gretel." It gave a good account of itself in the Schubert "Unfinished" symphony and other works, too.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: A television series, "Calamity Jane," will team Tom (ex-UW) Ewell and Joan Blondell. Johnny Mercer is the writer and composer.

Esther Ralston, one-time queen of the silent pictures, is star of a variety show being offered for radio.

The Four Lads, who sing with Johnnie Ray on discs, are scheduled for their own record series.

Lenny Herman, bandleader, is president of the Bantams, composed of men of 5 feet 5 inches or under, who have just listed "the 10 most desirable tall women." They are Esther Williams, Ingrid Bergman, Jane Russell, Dugmar, Anne Francis, Judy Holliday, Bess Myerson, Jinx Falkenberg, Jennifer Jones, and Alexis Smith.

Irving R. Levine, NBC front-line correspondent in Korea, has won a scholarship given by the Council on Foreign Relations. He will study a year at the council's headquarters in New York City, receiving a sum equal to his salary while he is there.

When Marian Anderson leaves Aug. 23 for two months of concerts in Europe, she will leave her husband, Architect Orpheus Fisher, at home to supervise building their new Connecticut house.

Violinist Zino Francescatti and his wife are back home at Monterey, Mass., after a two-month concert tour of South America. They bought the house earlier this year; it's called "Hiddeletop."

YOUR PASTOR SPEAKS: Clergymen who will speak on the all-church religious program, "Your Pastor Speaks," over WIBA nightly at 10:15, have been announced for next week as follows:

Monday, the Rev. Bernhard Rom, Bethany Evangelical Free church; Tuesday, the Rev. Robert H. Adams, Bethany Methodist; Wednesday, the Rev. Lawrence J. First, Catholic diocese; Thursday, First Reader Robert Carnes, First Church of Christ, Scientist; and Friday, the Rev. John R. Keene, Grace Episcopal church.

Catholic Lay Leader Urges Red Party Ban
LOS ANGELES —(UP)—John E. Swift, Boston Superior Court judge and supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus, advocated Sunday that the Communist party should be outlawed in the United States.

The Catholic lay leader who is here to attend the Knights of Columbus National convention said that much has been done in this country during the last two or three years to fight Communism but that we still must put up "even a stronger fight."

Mild Earthquake Shakes Atomic City
LOS ALAMOS, N.M. —(UP)—An earthquake strong enough to set off fire alarms and awaken residents shook this city, site of the atomic bomb laboratories, early Sunday.

There were no reports of any property damage or injuries.

The brief tremor was timed at about 2:45 a. m. It lasted only for a few seconds, according to reports of most persons who felt the shock, but the instruments which would have recorded such a vibration were not in operation.

Officials of the Atomic Energy Commission said no experimental projects were being conducted that could have caused such a tremor.

Mayor's Efforts Fail to Settle A-C Strike
TERRE HAUTE, Ind. —(UP)—Mayor Ralph Tucker met with union and management separately Sunday but failed in his efforts to end the 14-week-old strike at the Allis-Chalmers jet engine plant.

Tucker scheduled another conference with the groups for today and union officials said there would be a membership meeting tonight—either to receive a report on negotiations or to vote on a possible settlement.

Ag Production Shift Benefits Pepin County

DURAND—Over here on the western side of the state the farmers of Pepin county are talking about an amazing shift in agricultural production during the last five years.

Edmund Brunner, a farmer near Durand, held the first grass silage demonstration on his farm just five years ago. Five other farmers held demonstrations that year. The movement spread rapidly. In 1953, Parker figured even more than 80 per cent of the silos may be filled with grass.

This major shift has come as part of a statewide movement toward more and more use of improved grasslands in Wisconsin agriculture.

Parker reported that the shift is beginning to pay off in the county's income. Dairy plants report that milk production per farm has climbed steadily in the last few years.

He explained how the grass silage movement fits the agricultural program of his area. The steeply rolling slopes of this Mississippi river county demand alfalfa from a soil building standpoint and a soil protection standpoint.

Grass silage actually has been produced in such quantities that it has overflowed the silos. Farmers are using stacks as used for pea vine silage. And a number of trench silos are coming into the picture.

Alfalfa actually is the key to the Pepin county program. Farmers now have about one and a half acres of alfalfa and alfalfa mixtures for every dairy cow in the county. They're using it for hay and pasture, as well as silage. Red clover and some lucerne round out the legume picture.

Parker pointed out that a few farmers in the area do not like the silage... mainly because
