Spotlight

TIP O' THE MORNING: The gossips say Jimmy Durante will return to radio this season via NBC, but will continue on television, too.

* * * *

A CONFERENCE on music, art, and drama in religion will open today at the American Baptist Assembly, Green Lake, with John T. Clough of the Stambaugh Music center as chairman.

The conference will end Sept. 1 with a concert by a 200-voice chorus, conducted by Robert B. Lee, director of the school of sacred music of Union Theological seminary. The program will be at 3:30 p. m. in William Carey abbey.

The assembly staff chorus and Chicago singers will present "Elijah" at 3 p. m. this Sunday in Morehouse hall, with Evelyn Tannehill, Chicago, conducting. Next Saturday, a dramatization of "The Other Wise Man" will be given in the abbey at 8 p. m., with Amy Goodhue Loomis and Harold Sliker directing.

These festival programs will be open to the public without charge.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: A New York revival of "The Merchant of Venice," with Clarence Derwent as Shylock, is being considered by the American National Theater and Academy. Derwent was here last season in "A Sleep of Prisoners."

Isaac Stern has flown to Switzerland to begin a tour of Europe with more than 40 concerts in nine countries. He's due back in December.

Thomas Mitchell will be co-starred with Helen Gallagher in a Broadway musical, "Hazel Flagg," with rehearsals starting in December. Mitchell's last New York appearance was as Willy Loman in "Death of a Salesman."

Lily Lodge, daughter of Gov. and Mrs. John Lodge of Connecticut—both former actors—will make her stage debut next month in "Tin Wedding" at the Westport, Conn., Country Playhouse.

Bing Crosby will return to the air Oct. 1 via CBS. John Scott Trotter again will be musical director of the show.

Bogus-Check Writer Gets Jail Sentence

Edmund Leo Whalen, 57, a Madison man with no permanent address, was sent to jail for six months Friday by Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor for violating a previous probation given him in June for riting worthless checks by cashing more bogus checks.

He will be released from jail under the Huber law to work during the daytime. Judge Proctor ordered him to pay $197 restitution for the checks he cashed at Madison stores.
