Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT Names in the News

TIP OF THE MORNING: The Billboard expects Robert Nathan's comedy, "Jezebel's Husband," to be a Broadway hit; it was tried out at Framingham, Mass., with Claude Rains, Carmen Matthews, and Claudia Morgan in the cast.

WHEN the Ringling-Barnum circus left Madison early Monday for Beloit, Lou Jacobs wasn't on the train. The famous clown stayed in town for a physical checkup at St. Mary's hospital. Jeffrey Lynn is out of the cast of Uta Hagen's new play, now in rehearsal.

Gertrude Lawrence reacted to poison ivy shots and was hospitalized. Constance Carpenter is pinch-hitting for her in "The King and I."

Burl Ives will have the James Barton role in "Paint Your Wagon" when the musical goes on tour. It opens Oct. 2 in Columbus, O.

Vivienne Segal has returned to the "Pal Joey" cast after a two-week vacation and Barry Nelson has rejoined the New York company of "The Moon Is Blue" after a fortnight's rest.

Phil Silvers and "Top Banana" will start a tour Oct. 9 in Philadelphia. The comedian returned to the cast last week.

Jane Darwell starts her 46th year as an actress with a role in "Break-Up," movie starring Jean Simmons and Victor Mature. She won an "Oscar" in 1940 for her work in "The Grapes of Wrath."

Jascha Heifetz has won France's highest award for a recording artist, the Grand Prix de Disque. Mutual network reporter and author of "Mr.

President," was married last week in Paris to Margherita Bisconti of

NEW YORK CITY. Cy (ex-UW) Howard has written words and music of a song, "The Maid With the Gold Hair."

George Beaudet, Milwaukee jeweler, won special honors at the 47th annual exposition of the American National Retail Jewelers' Assn. in New York. A representative display of his work in palladium, newest of the precious metals being used in adornments, was set up in a special booth.

Daniel D. (ex-State Journal) Mich, executive editor of McCall's magazine, has announced the names of judges of the magazine's second annual "Awards to Women in Radio and Television." They are Irene Dunne, film and radio star; Dr. E. J. McGrath, U. S. commissioner of education; Mrs. O. A. Algren, president, General Federation of Women's Clubs; Elizabeth Marshall, vice-president, American Women in Radio and Television, and OUs (ex-UW)

Wiese, editor and publisher of McCall's.

WEEK'S WORST PUN: "To me, pre-election time is the season of excess prophets."—Joe DiMaggio.

AUDITIONS: The Waukesha Symphony orchestra will conduct auditions for membership at 7:30 p. m. Monday in the gymnasium of Carroll college. The first rehearsal will be held there at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday.

The orchestra, whose members come from as far away as Fond du Lac, will give five subscription concerts. The first will be Oct. 21, with Frank Glazer, Wisconsin-born pianist, as soloist.

DISC OF THE DAY: "Bim Bam Baby" sounds like Frank Sinatra has another hit on his hands, after a long wait. The tune is good, the lyrics are clever, and the arrange has drive. On top of this, Frank pushes his personality through it all. The second side, "Azure-Te," is a pretty good blues number, but lacks the punch of "Baby." (Columbia).
