That Musicians Trust Fund

"This concert is made possible by the music performance trust fund of the recording industry."

Maybe you have wondered what it's all about. Under an agreement between the makers of phonograph records and radio transcriptions and the American Federation of Musicians, an AFL union, a certain percentage of record and transcription sales goes into a fund administered by Samuel R. Rosenbaum, New York

During the first half of 1952, Rosenbaum says in his latest re-port, contributions totaled about $946,000, representing sales in the last half of 1951,

In the first six months of this year, the trustee approved 3.567 music projects across the country. These called for 6.352 separate performances involving 54,000 in-trumental players whose salaries

The current report says that in the first half of 1952, the fund presented more than 300 performances of chamber or symphonic music in the U. S. and Canada, with 5.730 musicians taking part. They received about $99,000 out of the total of about $600,000 paid out during the period.

Madison shared in this part of the fund's program through its assistance to the Madison Civic Symphony orchestra. It sent 29 musicians to each symphony orchestra. It sent 29 musicians to each of the three civic concerts given between Jan. 1 and June 1.
