TIP O' THE MORNING: Some sources are predicting a "big" shakeup on daytime radio and television schedules at both NBC and CBS. There will probably be some changes, but don't look for shifts of great proportions.

A UNIVERSITY of Wisconsin graduate, Charles Avery, was resident director of the Paul Bunyan Summer theater at Bemidji, Minn., this summer.

Paul Gibson, of WBBM, will spend the latter part of this week vacationing in Madison, coming here from his cabin in Minnesota.

Jay Novello has been signed to portray Willie Sutton on the television "Gangbusters" show and for a featured role in "Cattle Town," a movie starring Dennis Morgan.

Van Johnson is taking drum lessons for his role in the screen version of "Remains to Be Seen," co-starring June Allyson.

Charlotte Greenwood will be in the cast of "Father Williams" next picture, "Dangerous When Wet."

Elliott Lawrence has ordered side-angle trombones for his band. His will be the first dance orchestra to use the instrument, which was pictured recently in The State Journal.

Sammy Kaye, looking for a replacement for Barbara Benson, says his new singer "should look like Rita Hayworth and sing like Doris Day."

Ben Grauer has bought a dozen plows to be sent overseas by CARE.

Doris Day will star in a film version of "Sunny," the 1926 Broadway musical by Oscar Hammerstein II, Jerome Kern, and Otto Harbach. Marilyn Miller was the original star. The show's music includes "Who."

Agnes Moorehead's appearance on "Suspense" Monday night will be her 15th performance on that show and her sixth in "Sorry, Wrong Number."

Jack Warfield, 1937 graduate of the University of Wisconsin, has been appointed dean of the Pasadena Playhouse, famed theatrical training center at Pasadena, Calif.

He began his career at 13 with the Wisconsin Players of Milwaukee. Since leaving Wisconsin, he has won a master's degree at the University of Minnesota and a doctorate at the University of Utah; directed speech, drama, and radio at the University of Arkansas; served with the field artillery and the Armed Forces Radio Service (including installation of stations on Tarawa and Eniwetok), and headed dramatic work at Mary Washington college, in Virginia, and the Utah university summer festival. Mr. and Mrs. Warfield have been vacationing at Oshkosh with their three children; they will leave for Pasadena on Sept. 24.

WEEK'S WORST PUN: "Healthy babies should be a delicate pink, but ours is a loud yell." — Art Hellyer of WMAQ.

TODAY'S LAUGH: The vivid imaginations of small children occupied a few moments of the head man's time the other day on the Dave Garroway radio show. Dave told of a little girl he knows who was pretending to be a Red Cross nurse and was going in and out of the operating room, which was the kitchen. Each time she'd go in, the door would slam with a resounding bang. The child's mother finally became unnerved and the next time the girl called out "The patient is ready!" and gathered up her kit, her mother stopped her and made her come back and go through the door again without slamming it.

In a while the little girl returned and the mother, wanting to be kind again, said, "How's the patient?"

The little girl looked up and said bluntly, "Patient died. While I was foolin' with that door."

DISC OF THE DAY: Recommended "pop" recordings... Guy Mitchell (Columbia): "Feet Up," typical Mitchell spark, and "Jenny Kissed Me," folksy. Listen for an unidentified woman's voice on the latter. As usual, Mitch Miller's orchestra is first-rate.

Tony Bennett (Columbia): "Again" and "Roses of Yesterday," latter with women's chorus adding color.

NEW SERIES: "Living Declaration," the introductory program of a 13-week series on "Jeffersonian Heritage," produced by the National Association of Education Broadcasters (NAEB), will be presented Sunday at 3 p. m. over WHA and the Wisconsin State Broadcasting Service.

Director H. B. McCarty of WHA noted that the programs begin the day that inaugural broadcasts mark the completion of the final two stations in Wisconsin's state-owned FM network.

The new NAEB programs were made possible by a $300,000 grant from the Fund for Adult Education of the Ford Foundation. The committee which planned and produced the programs included George Probst, University of Chicago, chairman; Parker Wheatley, Lowell Institute Cooperative Broadcasting Council; Richard B. Hull, Iowa State College; McCarty, and Seymour Siegel, director, Municipal Broadcasting System, New York.

William Harley, program director for station WHA on leave the past year, has guided the four-program project.

"Living Declaration" will dramatize the part played by Thomas Jefferson in the writing of the Declaration of Independence. Morton Wisniewski wrote the text which he based on the research, writing, and advice of Dr. Dumas Malone, professor of history at Columbia University.

Claude Raines, distinguished star of stage, screen, and radio, plays the part of Jefferson.

SNAKE CAUSES CRASH
NORTH KINGSTOWN, R. I. (UP)—A snake makes an expensive pet, Thomas Hurley discovered. He had to pay $110 damages to Robert Ellen for damaging the latter's automobile. The snake, which Hurley was carrying in his glove compartment, stuck out its head and startled him, causing him to lose control.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.
