Names in the News

TIP OF THE MORNING: When "Alma Mater" hits the screens, the John Wayne movie won't be called that. The title has been changed to "Trouble Along the Way." And "Don't Cry, Baby" will emerge as "The City Is Dark."

TWO WIBA programs will be broadcast from Waupun today. Appearing on "Farm Roundup" at 11:15 a. m. will be John Hoekstra, Waupun farmer; Glenn Wilson, secretary of the Waupun Chamber of Commerce; B. J. Schaefer, Roy Ormond, and Frank Mayfield. John Madigan, Milton Priebe, and Mayfield will be on "Farm Service" at 12:15 p. m.

Roger Brown, president of Brown Records, has offered Pres. Truman a guarantee of $40,000 for one hour's work after Jan. 20—reording four tunes.

Jeffrey Dean, 24 Paget rd., auditioned successfully at Whitewater last week for a place in the Columbus Boy-choir school at Princeton, N. J., but he says he isn't sure that he wants to leave Madison. He's in seventh grade at Lakewood school.

Ray Milland will sing for the first time in his 20 years of movie experience when he appears with Jane Wyman in "Love Song."

Mrs. Edward MacDowell, widow of the composer, will be honored in absentia Friday night by a dinner in New York City. The event will climax a nationwide drive for funds to support the MacDowell Colony at Peterborough, N. Y. Mrs. MacDowell will speak to the diners by recording. She will be 95 on Saturday.

John Van Druten's 19th Broadway play, "I've Got Sixpence," will open Dec. 2 at the Barmore theater. Edmond O'Brien and Vivica Lindfors will head the cast, which will include Patricia Collins and Vicki Cummings.

Victor (ex-UW) Perrin has signed for a role in "The System," Warner film starring Frank Lovejoy.

Actress Irene Rich is a student at the Art Student league in New York City.

Robert Gordon, winner of Golden Gloves, college, and other boxing championships, will direct "The Joe Louis Story" for Federated Films.

TODAY'S QUOTE: "Making history is the only criterion that we can accept in judging the activities of our cultural institutions."—Virgil Thompson in the New York Herald Tribune.

DISC OF THE DAY: MGM's recording of serious music, a comparatively new venture for the film, comes of age with the issuance of Bizet's "Jeux d'Enfants" and Chabrier's "Suite Pastorale" on a long-playing disc. Both are performed beautifully by the Royal Opera House orchestra of Covent Garden under Warwick Braithwaite, with the Bizet work getting the edge for its charm; the Chabrier suite has uninteresting moments.

SALON OF ART: Exactly 203 Wisconsin artists submitted 355 entries for the 18th annual Wisconsin Salon of Art, which will open with a preview reception at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Memorial Union lounge. Approximately 100 have been chosen by a jury for exhibition.

Entries exceeded those for the 1951 show, which received 288 works from 173 artists. This year's award money of more than $1,000 also tops last year's.

The show is sponsored by the Wisconsin Union gallery committee.

FREEDOM, U.S.A.: Information about Washington and the federal government is a sidelight to the drama of "Freedom, U.S.A.," which starts tonight at 8:30 on WKOW. During the first episode, for example, you will hear the answers to these questions:

"Who laid the cornerstone for the U.S. Capitol?"

"In what year was construction of the capitol begun?"

"How many times must a bill be read on the floor of the senate before it is put to a vote?"

"What is a roll-call vote?"

"What document must be read on the floor of the senate on a certain day each year?"

POETRY ON THE AIR: Harry S. Glicksman, professor emeritus of English at the University of Wisconsin, and the WHA Players are offering poetry in dramatic form over WHA, WLBL, and the state FM network.

The "Drama in Poetry" series, produced by Karl Schmidt, employs sound, music, and casts with Glicksman as writer and narrator. Passages and scenes from English and American literature and from comparable translated works are given by the cast with supplementary comments by Glicksman.

Texts are chiefly poetry with some prose. The aim throughout the series is to interpret the dramatic essence of imaginative literature, its living strength and beauty, and the relationship between poetry and the ageless problems of society, Glicksman explains.

Titles of some of the programs scheduled for this semester are: "The Idylls of the King," "The Illiad and the Aeneid," "America and the Modern World," "Michael," written by Wordsworth, "Ballad of Billy Potts," by Robert Penn Warren, "The Misanthrope," by Moliere.
