

TIP OF THE MORNING: Ezio Pinza and Marguerite Piazza will be teamed on a radio show (NBC) starting Dec. 8.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN basketball season is at hand, so Coach Harold "Bud" Foster will begin his annual radio series on WIBA and WIBA-FM at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Charlie Hanson, Madison announcer for WIBU and WWCF for the past one and one-half years, will be chief announcer at WAPL, Appleton, which begins operations Saturday.

Katharine Cornell has broken her own records in Baltimore, Pittsburgh, and Montreal with "The Constant Wife," in which she is touring with Robert Fleming and John Emery as co-stars. Her 75-city journey began Oct. 13, will end May 30 in Milwaukee. Meanwhile, the company will have its longest run in Chicago, opening Dec. 26 at the Harris theater after a nine-day vacation.

Gary Cooper and Barbara Stanwyck will co-star in "Blowing Wild," to be filmed in Mexico.

Alex (ex-U.W.) Gottlieb has completed negotiations with Warner Brothers for delivery of five pictures. First will be "The Blue Gardenia," starring Anne Baxter, Richard Conte, Ann Sothern, and Nat "King" Cole.

Connie Russell has signed with Columbia Pictures for a leading role in "Here Comes the Showboat."

Clarence Riddington Kelland's novel, "Tombstone," will be filmed by Columbia.

Montgomery Clift will play Prewitt in the movie version of "From Here to Eternity."

Al Heifer, "sports voice of Mutual," has been appointed sports editor of Real magazine. He will continue as the network's chief sports announcer.

Moss Hart will write the screenplay of "A Star Is Born," Judy Garland's first starring picture for Warner.

Jane and Patti Pickens will be reunited for the first time in years when they are soloists Dec. 14 in "The Messiah" at Bethlehem, Pa.

Judith Waller, director of public affairs and education for NBC in Chicago, has been cited by the American Medical Assn. for her "30 years of outstanding service" and her "many years of cooperation in the health education radio programs by this and other medical organizations."

Robert Young will record "Father Knows Best" during his Chicago engagement in "The Country Girl." The programs will be taped today through Dec. 19, including Sundays but excluding Wednesdays and Saturdays. You can get tickets by writing or telephoning "Guest Relations, National Broadcasting Co., Merchandise Mart, Chicago."
