U.W. Chorus, Orchestra to Give 'Messiah'

When the University Chorus at the University of Wisconsin sings the "Messiah" in the Wisconsin Union Theater Tuesday, Dec. 16 at 8 p.m., 32 members of the University Symphony Orchestra will help to interpret Handel's glorious music.

"We have scheduled the concert early in the week to give students an opportunity to hear the work before they leave for the Christmas recess," Director J. Russell Paxton explains.

"We also would like to extend a special invitation for parents of students to come to the concert so they can see for themselves the opportunities for musical expression the University offers their sons and daughters."

Faculty Joins Chorus
Prof. Christine Gunlaugson, soprano, Keith Macy, tenor, and Donn Weiss, bass, all of the school of Music staff, and Irma Reynolds, Chicago contralto, will sing the solo parts. Mrs. Lyon is a graduate of the UW School of Music who is now singing professionally.

By opening the ranks of the Chorus to faculty as well as students this fall, Paxton recruited some 224 voices all eager to do the "Messiah." The group has been rehearsing regularly in Music Hall in preparation for the Dec. 16 program, which is open to the public without charge.

Paxton, this year has taken over the choral work of Prof. Paul Jones, now at Union Theological Seminary in New York completing his doctoral degree in sacred music. Paxton is no stranger to Wisconsin, for he has for several years had charge of the choral work in the Summer Music Clinic on the campus.

List Orchestra Staff
The UW Symphony Orchestra members who will participate include Mark Brennan, Milwaukee; Betty Casida, 4229 Mandan Crescent, Edmund Jacobs, Cincinnati, O., and Carol Vandre, Sheboygan, and first violins: Alice English and Coralee Stokke, both of La Crosse, first violins: Robert Karlan, Flushing, N. ## Mrs. Gill to Leave Voter League Post

Mrs. Charles H. Gill, Route 3, who has headed the Madison League of Women Voters for the past three years, has submitted her resignation as president of the organization, effective in March, it was learned Wednesday night.

Mrs. Gill, in a letter to the League's other officers, said that other commitments, involving her family, would prevent her from finishing out her two-year term of office.

Mrs. Gill was elected to her present term on Mar. 18 of this year after serving two one-year terms previously.

She said she was submitting her resignation to the group this far in advance in order to give the nominating committee advance notice that a vacancy would occur in the organization's top office in March.

Mrs. Gill has been a member of the League for the past six years.

and Ellen Carstens, Milwaukee, cellos: Carolyn Southard, Elgin, Ill., Rodney Johnson, Wooster, O., basses: Ruth Druckenmiller, 176 Monroe Park, and Ann Seibold, 1917 Kendall Ave., flutes: Donna Stone, Chicago, and Erling Thoreson, Mt. ## JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

The unnecessary finesse is one of the crimes most commonly committed by the losing bridge player.

A good friend of mine, now happily an expert bridge player, took four unnecessary finesses in the very first bridge hand he ever played in his life. He lived to tell the tale, but he can still remember some of his partner's comments.

In today's hand, declarer took only one unnecessary finesse, but it was one too many. It cost him his game contract.

When West opened the seven of spades, South decided to play low from the dummy in the hope of winning a spade finesse sooner or later. East won with the queen of spades and promptly shifted to the jack of hearts. This was the beginning of the end for South.

Declarer won with the ace of hearts and entered dummy with the king of clubs in order to return a low diamond. The plan was to finesse the nine from his own hand and thus develop the suit without giving East the lead. Unfortunately for declarer, East put up the jack of diamonds and subsequently won the third round of that suit. A heart continuation then gave the defenders three tricks in that suit to defeat the contract.

South should have seen the danger of a heart shift at the very first trick. The correct play is to win the first trick with the ace of spades and go right after the diamond.

East gets one diamond trick and can take two spades, if he chooses to do so. Dummy's eight of spades will then provide a second stopper in the suit. No matter what East does, however, he cannot prevent declarer from winning four diamonds, three clubs, and two aces.

Kenosha Man Admits Manslaughter Charge

RACINE (U.P.) — John Washington, 37, Wednesday pleaded guilty to a charge of first degree manslaughter in the death of Leslie Farrow, 58, who died of injuries suffered in a fist fight.

Washington said he and Farrow had an argument about whether Farrow should pay him for an auto trip from Kenosha to Racine. The incident happened Oct. 4 and Farrow died at a hospital three days later.

Washington, a Kenosha resident, will be sentenced Saturday. At his trial in Municipal Court Wednesday, he asked that a court-appointed attorney be at his side when the sentence is handed down.
