

TIP O' THE MORNING: The Poinsettia Bowl football game between champion teams of the armed services will be on WIBA and WIBA. FM at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

CHARLES C. HALVORSEN has been reelected president of the Madison Musicians assn., Local 166 of the AFL American Federation of Musicians. Other officers elected at the December meeting were Benny Ebr. vice-president; Frank P. Fosgate, secretary; Gerald G. Billington, treasurer, and Harold Swearingen, sergeant-at-arms.

Board members are Fredi Bittner, Frank Douglas, and Doster DeHaven.

So far this year, a report showed, the association has donated musicians', services worth $3,812.08 to youth dances, bospital and institutional entertainment, and the Vilas Park band concerts. This came from the Recording Industry Trust fund.

The association voted to contribute to the Empty Stocking club, University of Wisconsin band fund, Madison Tubereu-losis assn., Volunteers of America, Salvation Army, Roundy's Fun Fund, Boys Town, and March of Dimes.

It will also furnish musicians for March of Dimes dancing and will sponsor its annual) Musicians Ball in the spring.

SCRIPT COMPETITION: The 12th annual "Dr. Christian" script competition, paying $250 to $2,000 for scripts to be dramatized on CBS Radios "Dr. Christian" series starring Jean Hersholt, will open Jan. 7. The comest, which has awarded more than $153,000 for 491 plays from both amateur and professional writers, will close March 4. The first prizewinnimplay will be broadcast May 27. First prize is $2,000, with three $500 prizes for the next best scripts. All other plays selected for dramatization on the "Dr. Christian" program will win $250 to $350.
