Sweepstakes Unspent, Prize Winner Dies
 BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—A year ago Harry A. Yool won $142,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes.
 A cautious man, he decided he would not spend any of the money until he had settled all tax claims against it.
 The taxes came to about $80,000 and Yool, a 60-year-old retired electrician, paid them off as they became due.
 The last installment of $20,000 was due Monday.
 Yool, who was in a hospital after an operation, died Monday.
 Friends said they believed he had about $62,000 left, but he did not get to spend a cent of his Sweepstakes winnings.

CAMERA CONTAINS CASH
 OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—The thief who stole a camera from Mrs. Joy Harding's home should get a pleasant surprise if he tries to take a picture with it. Mrs. Harding said the camera had been used as a piggy bank and was stuffed with about $35.

Alert UN Troops Stand By After Reds Vow Attack
 TOKYO (UP)—United Nations fighting men stood alertly by their guns and lobbed an occasional shell into Red lines today as they waited to see if the Communists meant business with their threats of a New Year offensive.
 A freezing cold, lonely New Year's Eve was in prospect for front-line troops. It will be the third of the Korean War but the first in the line for most combat soldiers.
 Light snow and sleet fell along the 155-mile front and temperatures were as low as six degrees.
 Anti-aircraft guns in the Seoul area fired on two unidentified planes Tuesday night. The slow-moving craft caused an air raid alert and blackout from 8:45 p.m. to 9:40 p.m.
 They made no attempt to attack and disappeared to the northeast.
 Early today there still were no indications along the front that the Red threat of a general offensive Jan. 4, broadcast by a woman announcer, was anything but propaganda.
 Allied reconnaissance troops and planes spotted no unusual enemy buildups or troop movement. Ground action during daylight Tuesday came to a near halt.
