

TIP OF THE MORNING: "20 Questions" will have a new moderator starting this week. He's Jay Jackson, who started in radio at Cincinnati in 1935. Reason for Bill Slater's leaving the show hasn't been revealed.

KIRSTEN FLAGSTAD, Norwegian soprano; Edwin Fischer, Swiss pianist, and Yehudi Menuhin, American violinist, will be among the soloists at the Bergen International festival in June, says an announcement from the home city of Edvard Grieg.

Also participating will be the Harmonien orchestra, which Grieg conducted several years; the Oslo Philharmonic orchestra; the Vegh String quartet; Conductors Carl Garaguly and Odd Grue-ner Hegge; a festival chorus; folk dancers and musicians; a troupe of actors, and others.

The 1953 festival will mark the 110th anniversary of Grieg's birth in Bergen. Since the centenary of that event occurred during the occupation of Norway, "it was not possible to give it a worthy celebration," the announcement says. "It is therefore intended to give the 110th anniversary of his birth a more impressive background."

Theatrical events at the festival will include performances of "Mascareade," a comedy by Ludvig Holberg, also a native of Bergen, and "The Scottish Lady," based on the story of Anna Rustung, who gave asylum to James Hepburn, Mary Stuart's exiled husband, in 1567.

During the festival period—June 1 to 15, inclusive—the International Confederation of Societies of Authors and Composers will hold its world conference in Bergen. Arthur Hon-egger is president of this organization of writers and musicians of 54 nations.

ON THE AIR: Inauguration ceremonies in the state capitol will be broadcast at noon Monday by WIBA-FM.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

When today's hand was played, South happened to be a confirmed overbidder. He had made a resolution to bid more conservatively, and he had kept this resolution for a short time.

But when this hand came along he could bear the restraint no longer. He simply couldn't see himself playing the South hand for less than a slam.

Just put yourself in South's seat. You have bid the hand to the hit, or perhaps a little farther, and you are now playing the hand at a contract of six hearts. You win the first trick with the king of diamonds, and it is now up to you to plan the rest of the hand. How would you go about it?

You begin by laying down the ace of trumps, and each opponent follows suit. Don't be too quick about your next play.

At the third trick your best play is to lead a low spade from your hand. East wins and returns a trump, which you take with the king of hearts. Now you lead the queen of clubs and overtake with dummy's king, since you must get to dummy for the spade finesse.

When the queen of spades holds, you can breathe a sigh of relief. You are still not out of the woods.

however. You must lay down the ace of spades before drawing the last trump.

This play is perfectly safe if each opponent has three spades. If the spades are 4-2, however, your only hope is that the player with the four spades is the same defender who has the last trump.

This is actually the case, and West must make a futile discard, while East follows suit. Now you can ruff your last spade with dummy's last trump, and the rest of the tricks are easily yours.

BLONDIE

By Chic Young

At the Shows

Orpheum

FEATURE The Road to Bali.

TYPE: Technicolor slapstick.

CAST: George, Bing Crosby; Harold Bob Hope; the Princess, Dorothy Lamour and an assortment of movie stars rung in at the darndest times.

STORY: Two American hoofers, down in their luck in Australia, sign-up as deep sea divers, not knowing they're accessories to an island prince's efforts to recover a lost treasure. They meet the princess (Miss Lamour) in her swank island palace (quote Hope: "Wonderful what a GI loan can do"). Fleeting to Bali, the road show trio continue their antics which are centered around efforts to win Miss Lamour.

HIGH POINTS: Hope and Crosby banter the quick back and forth faster than a tennis ball at Wimbledon... the technicolor sheep all out (seven varicolored sheep "for argyle socks")... the clever fun-poking at the usual grist of island pictures coming out of Hollywood.

LOW POINTS: Miss Lamour still can sing and tread water at the same time but she's more bouyant, too... no really catchy tunes.

VERDICT: The best of the "Road" shows; draw your own conclusions.
