JACOBY ON

-By Oswald Jacoby

What is the best way to play the accompanying hand?" asks a Pittsburgh correspondent. "Opinion here is sharply divided on this

"When the hand was betusly played, declarer won the opening spade lead in dummy, drew trumps, and staked his slam on distely, discarding hearts from the South hand. Declarer then takes the ace of hearts and leads a trump to dummy.

"Declarer con enter dummy twice with trumps to ruff low hearts. When the king of hearts drops, declarer can get back to dummy with the king of diamonda to discard his losing diamond on the jack of hearts.

"What is the correct percentage play if you see only the South hand and the dummy? Do you have a better chance if you take the finesse, or in general do you have a better chance if you try to

City Masons Host to Grand Lodge

Club Badger Club Bedger

Madison Masons were hosts Friday for the first time to the quarterly session of the Wisconsin grand lodge, climaxing the day with a reception at 6 p. m. for Ray V. Denslow, past grand master of Missouri who will speak at 7 tonight. 7 tonight.

Denslow will talk on "Oppor tension will task on "Oppor-tunities and Limitations of Mason-ry Universal" before about 400 state grand lodge officers and past masters from other lodges in the state.

The quarterly grand lodge ses-sions are held in different cities each year. This is the first time Madison has been chosen as the host city, said D. D. Crabtree, master of Hiram Lodge No. 50.

His lodge, Madison Lodge No. 5, and Commonwealth No. 325, are sponsoring the event here.

Denslow has made two trips to
