

Bill Doudna's SPOTLIGHT Theater in the Round

TIP OF THE MORNING: Jane Pickens is planning her third radio series—a program of folk songs with guitar accompaniment. She'll play the guitar.

THEATERGOERS attending "Papa Is All" at West high school at 8:15 tonight will receive announcements of the Madison Theater Guild's first "theater in the round" production. It will be an extra play in the 1952-53 series.

Oddy enough, the title of the "theater in the round" choice is "Dangerous Corner." Al Baraclough, Guild director, will produce the J. B. Priestley play, which will be given Feb. 18-21, inclusive, in Scanlan hall.

SCREEN TOU: The next Audubon Screen Tour will be presented by the Madison Audubon Society at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Feb. 4, in West high school auditorium.

CONCERT: The Men's Glee club of Wheaton college, Wheaton, Ill., will give a concert at 8 p. m. Monday in Bethany Evangelical Free church. Dr. H. William Nordin, professor of music at Wheaton, will conduct the chorus.

TODAY'S QUOTE: "A small town is a place where everyone knows what everyone else is doing, but they read the local paper to see if they've been caught at it." — Van Johnson.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Top role in "The Top Guy" will go to Milwaukee Jay Jostyn with the ABC broadcast of Feb. 12. Jostyn is best known for his years as "Mr. District Attorney."

Charles Laughton is recalling some personal history as he acts in "Young Bess" at MGM. It's being filmed on the stonied stage where, 17 years ago, he bullied Clark Gable in "Mutiny on the Bounty." He's playing the master of Henry the Eighth's flagship—and 20 years ago he won an "Oscar" for portraying Henry.

Clark Gable, now in Africa for "Mogambo" scenes, probably will go next to South America to make "Green Fire."

Ben Grauer has been appointed chairman of the radio-television committee for the Crusade for Freedom.

Guy Mitchell has signed a two-year renewal of his recording contract.

Milwaukee's Liberales has signed with RKO Radio Pictures to head the cast of "Laughs-a-Poppin," novelty film made up of a group of short subjects linked by the pianist's music and talk.

Urula Thies, European star, will make her American film debut in "Sons of Sinbad."

BENNY FIDDLES AGAIN: Comedian Jack Benny, who only last Sunday fulfilled a lifetime ambition by playing his famous violin piece, "Love in Bloom," with a symphony orchestra, received a stranger reception for his fiddling Tuesday night, the United Press reports from Las Vegas, Nev.

Las Vegas gamblers first offered 10 cents to hear him play the number and that bid was topped by an offer of $1,000 if he would not play the piece. But on a bid of 1,500 he did perform.

Benny's appearance and that of numerous other theatrical celebrities was for the benefit of the March of Dimes. The auction-banket was sponsored by the resort hotels of the gambling town and held at the Desert Inn. It resulted in the collection of $21,000 for the fight against infantile paralysis.

BADGER GEOGRAPHY: "Wisconsin from the Air," a four-part program series of lectures on Wisconsin geography, will be broadcast at 3 p. m. each Sunday in February over WEA and the State Radio Council network. Dr. Alton Neher, program co-ordinator for the network, announced Wednesday.

The lectures, dealing with economic and historical as well as geographical aspects of selected Wisconsin areas, will be given by Prof. Robert W. Finley of the University of Wisconsin extension division's geography department.

The hour-long programs will be presented by the extension division in cooperation with the Wisconsin aeronautics commission and the State Historical society, and will be produced and arranged by Neher.

The lectures will be recorded broadcasts made by Prof. Finley during airplane field trips.

Program dates and areas to be discussed are: Feb. 1, Madison Wisconsin; Feb. 8, Green Bay; Feb. 15, Superior-Duluth; Feb. 22, southeastern Wisconsin, including Racine-Kenosha, Milwaukee.
