SPOTLIGHT Television and Water

TIP O' THE MORNING: Warner Brothers will film "Dial M for Murder," in which Maurice Evans is starring on Broadway and Richard Greene in Chicago.

TOLEDO, Ohio, has a new way of gauging the popularity of television programs. Writing in the Toledo Blade, Alan Schoedel says that the city's water commissioner claims he can measure the appeal of a television show by fluctuations in water pressure.

"The pressure remains high during a television program while everybody is sitting quietly watching, but suddenly drops at the end of a program because—guess what—so many persons get up and go to the bathroom at the same time," Schoedel says.

It took the department a couple of years to figure out why it had sudden and apparently inexplicable changes in pressure. Then the officials noticed that these fluctuations came at hour or half-hour intervals.

"For example," the Blade article says, "at the start of 'I Love Lucy' one night recently, the rate of water consumption went down 13.8 per cent from the normal pumpage line. In the space of about 5 minutes when the program ended, it shot up 22 per cent over the low, showing a brief net gain of 8.2 per cent."

"On a recent TV fight night the gallopage dropped off at 10 p. m. when the boxing bout began, but spurted upward when the fight ended.

"Water consumption was generally low during the hour-long drama telecast on Sunday night, Jan. 18, between 9 and 10.

"But about 9:20 it rose 6.5 per cent for just a couple of minutes. About 9:40 there was a similar brief upward swing of 10.5 per cent."

"What happened?" "Those," said the Toledo water commissioner, "were the commercials."

THEATER GUILD: Members of the Madison Theater Guild will see a rehearsal of the first act of "Dangerous Corner" when they meet in the Madison Community Center at 8 tonight.

AT THE CAPITOL: "I Confess," booked for an early showing at the Capitol theater, will have a two-theater world premiere in Quebec on Thursday.

Alfred Hitchcock, director, and Anne Baxter and Robert Dorn, principal players, will be on hand for the Quebec celebration.

Also on the Capitol theater list for the next few weeks are "The Jazz Singer," "Androcles and the Lion," "Peter Pan," and "She's Back on Broadway."

Two special shows are set for this week. A "comedy spookeroo" will be a midnight show Friday, the 13th, and a children's Valentine party will begin at 9:45 a. m. Saturday.

ICE FOLLIES: The Shipstead and Johnson "Ice Follies of 1953" will be back in the Midwest come spring. The show will be at the Minneapolis Arena March 6-April 12 and the Milwaukee Arena April 13-19.

AT MILWAUKEE: An exhibition of paintings by Alfred Sessler and crafts by Arthur Vierthaler will be on view at the Milwaukee Art Institute Feb. 13-March 19.

ART IN INDIA: Two Wisconsin natives will be represented in the first organized exhibit of American paintings to be shown in India. They are Georgia O'Keeffe and Karl Knaths. The show will open March 1 in New Delhi, then will go on a six-month tour.

AUDITIONS: WHA staff members will audition University of Wisconsin students this week for dramatic and announcing work and will confer with those interested in news-editing.

Producer Karl Schmidt will conduct actors' auditions at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday. Those accepted will become members of the Radio Hall Players.

Chief Announcer Ken Ohst will audition prospective announcers at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.

News Director Roy Vogelmann will conduct a news editors' conference from 7 to 8 p. m. Thursday.

All sessions will be in Radio Hall.
