SCHOLARSHIPS: Ten tuition scholarships totalling $4,500 for art students in the United States and its possessions have been announced by the Art Students league of New York. The scholarships are for two classes during the full 1953-54 term of eight and one-half months, and are open to all students except who live in New York City or who have previously studied at the League. To compete, students must send samples of their work in any medium (or photographs of sculpture) to the league at 215 W. 57th St., New York 19, N. Y. All packages must be prepaid, and must arrive between March 15 and March 31.

A jury of artists selected by the league's board of control will make the awards on the basis of the submitted work, which will then be returned to the competitors by express C. O. D.

The league is a non-profit school organized and operated by its members exclusively for educational purposes since 1875. Among former winners of its out-of-own scholarships are Arnold Blanch, Doris Rosenthal, Victor de Pauw, Vaclav Vytlacil, and Adolph Dehn.

What Is Better Than A Raise in Pay!

Answer: The low prices at Bond's Grocery.

You pay extra taxes on extra income, so a penny saved is better than a penny earned. How much milk do you use? Supermarkets sell 2 quarts for 41c; our price is 20c. This is no special, but the level we've held since Jan. 9 when wholesale cost dropped. You'll find we give you an "edge" on most daily needs, and on the rest our prices are "in line."

Rev. Charles R. Bell, Jr., Pastor

MONEY ISN'T EVERYTHING

We are looking for two or three more persons to add their talents and a total of not over $5,000 to assets already assembled. The goal is formation of a non-profit corporation, non-sectarian and independent, to bring a needed service to (1) church people of this area and (2) persons outside churches whose needs are not being met by existing organizations.

This job requires money, but funds must come from right sources. Persons with proper attitudes and talents but lacking money may inquire; but until someone rustles up cash, they can't be put to work—unless they have independent incomes and are willing to contribute their services.

Money belonging to well-meaning but impractical persons can't be used; and money of persons who lack faith in Christ will also be valueless. You must have courage of your convictions plus respect for differing opinions of others, the kind of love for all men that refuses to do violence even in a "just" cause, and hope for the future of all mankind rather than belief that Love will ultimately fail to draw all men to Christ.

You must recognize the darkness of the hour and be determined to endure to the end, neither in resignation nor in rebellion against encroaching evil.

Desired talents are those commonly found in lawyers, accountants, farmers or other business men, educators or elected and appointed public servants. Theological training or pastoral experience may prove a handicap, but need not disqualify.

A personal interview may be arranged by sending no more than your name and address or telephone number to Box 2790, Times-Journal. Any information supplied by you will be held in strictest confidence.
