WKOW to Broadcast 'Bomb Target—U. S. A.' An hour-long appraisal of civil defense preparations will be broadcast by WKOW at 8 tonight—a little more than three days after the first atomic weapons test of 1953.

The documentary program was prepared by a corps of newsmen from the Columbia Broadcasting System who recorded hundreds of miles of tape from which Pro-1015 over WIBA and WBA-FM, director Irving Gitlin selected material to answer such questions as follows:

What is America doing to meet the menace? The recordings include one made at the super-sect emergency headquarters of the national civil defense organization.
