City Man Pleads Not Guilty to Drunk Driving
Shirley Pruitt, 41, of 1341 Williamson st., pleaded not guilty in Superior Court Friday to a drunken driving charge and was released on $125 bail pending trial Apr.

10.

Lloyd Larson, sports editor of the Milwaukee Sentinel, has been ammed as toastmaster of the 1953 Gridiron Banquet sponsored by the University of Wisconsin chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, to be held Thursday, Apr. 16, in the Memorial Union.

In expectation of a discussion on the Rose Bowl. Team Captain George O'Brien, Park Ridge, Ill., has been invited to give the team's point of view.

on $125 bail pending trial Apr.

Pruitt, a restaurant operator, was charged on a state warrant which permits the imposition of a jail sentence if he is convicted. Asst. Dist. Atty. William A. Bryne said a state rather than city charge was placed against him because of the large property damage caused by Pruitt's accident early Friday and because of his previous drunken driving convictions.

Puttity and pending trial Apr. has been invited to give the team's point of view. Kenneth G. Crawford, national affairs editor of Newsweek, last week was named principal speaker for the banquet, Jack Ryan, Chi-cago Daily News sports writer, was named to lead a discussion on football.

Larson toastmaster at the 1951 banquet, was then awarded the Red Derby as the person who contributed the most to the success of the program.

Pruitt's car struck a parked car owned by Paul Niske, Minocqua, in the 2300 block on Monroe st. Niska's car was shoved 36 feet ahead into a tree and police esti-mated it received $900 damage Katheryne Lumblo, 26, of 522 E. Wilson st., a passenger in Pruitt's car, suffered nose cuts which required eight stitches. Pruitt was convicted in Madison of drunken driving in 1948 and in McHenry, Ill., in 1949, Bryne said.

STORY BEEIND STORY: The Bartell Television Corp. announced earlier this month that its station. Not wishing to take an existing station's call letters, the studio applied to the FCC for a set of call letters "WMTV." The choice, at first thought seemed simple enough; the letters could stand for "Watch Madison TV."

But getting them wasn't so simple.

Jerry Bartell tells the story:

"Seems that about two years of call letters had just passed over his desk that I could have if I wanted them. It was the set that was no longer used by a certain picture corporation and which was no call letters. WMTV on Channel 33."
