

Bill Doukna's SPOTLIGHT Haresfoot Club

TIP OF THE MORNING: Only Wisconsin station signed up thus far for the Indianapolis Speedway 500-mile race is WTMJ. Fred Capossela, who'll call the horse races on WIBA Saturdays, is a brother of The State Journal's Joe Capossela.

WITH THE University of Wisconsin's spring vacation starting at the end of today's classes, the Haresfoot club is ready to take off for Beloit to open its tour with "Red, Hot, and Blue."

The Cole Porter musical will open tonight at the Beloit high school auditorium, then will move to Janesville for a performance at 8 p. m. Saturday.

After a one-day layoff, the company will set out again Monday for a one-week tour. The Madison performances will begin Monday, April 27, in the Wisconsin Union theater.

Heading the cast are Dave Matson, Madison, in the part created by Ethel Merman; Ron Haase, Milwaukee, in Bob Hope's role, and Al Schwartz, Chicago, in the part first played by Jimmy Durante.

Matson was elected president of the university class of 1954 Wednesday night.

POETRY FESTIVAL: The Madison public schools' annual Poetry Festival will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, April 25, at Washington school.

Marjorie Schaffer, of Emerson school, is chairman, and Mrs. Lorna Langfeld, graduate student in speech at the University of Wisconsin will be critic-judge.

The festival will be open to the public.

EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION: The first national conference on educational television will be held May 4 in Washington, D. C. It will be sponsored by the National Citizens Committee for Educational Television, of which Milton Eisenhower and Marion Folsom are honorary chairmen.

The committee has announced that the first educational television station in the U. S. will go on the air the same day. It is KUHT, jointly licensed by the University of Houston, Tex., and the Harris county independent school district.

BIRTHDAY: Harry Epstein will speak on one of two programs to be broadcast by WIBA and WBAF this week end in observance of Israel's fifth birthday.

Epstein, who is chairman of the board of directors of the Madison Jewish Welfare fund, will speak at the conclusion of an NBC program on behalf of the United Jewish Appeal, which will be broadcast at 6 p. m. Sunday. Entitled "Standards of Living," the program will star Danny Kaye.

On Saturday at 9:15 p. m., Sen. Styles Bridges and Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban will salute Israel's fifth birthday on a program prepared by NBC in cooperation with the American Zionist council.

DISCS OF THE DAY: Recommended "pops" records... Billy Eckstine (MGM): "A Fool in Love" and "Cocarde." One of his best.

Sammy Kaye orchestra (Columbia): "Lighthouse in the Harbor," vocal by Jeffrey Clay and chorus, and "An Angel Made of Ice," vocal by Clay. Sweet Song paired with overdone Latin effort.

Josef Mares and Miranda Columbia (Columbia): "Take Off Your Jacket" and "Unga Wena Wena." A brace of cute, swinging tunes, with lively backing by Mitch Miller.

Cindy Lord (MGM): "Come Back to Me, My Love" and "Let's Fall in Love." An intriguing voice, this.

Toni Harper (Columbia): "Silly Heart" and "I'll Never Forget You." Nice but hardly sensational.

Tony Bennett (Columbia): "No One Will Ever Know," country-style ballad, and "I'm the King of Broken Hearts," powerhouse performance.

Tommy Edwards (MGM): "I Lived When I Met You" and "Au Revoir." Gentle is the word for these.

Hank Williams Memorial (MGM): A 10-inch LP with such Williams hits as "Kaw-Liga," "Your Cheatin' Heart," "Hey, Good Lookin'," "Cold, Cold Heart," "Half as Much," and others performed by the writer-singer.

10 a. m.—Homemakers (WHA): "The Woman With the Whip—Eva Peron," Mrs. Irving J. Maurer.

10:45 a. m.—Bob Hope (WIBA): salute to Texas woman who helps children from broken homes.
