SPOTLIGHT Mark St. George

TIP O' THE MORNING: Trade papers and show business spokesmen agree that the outdoor season will be one of history's biggest. Biggest handicap is shortage of men for heavy work.

YOU USED to be able to tell a customer from Milwaukee by the kind of beer he ordered, according to Mark St. George. Nowadays you're sure he's from Milwaukee when he asks you to play "Take Me Out to the Ball Game."

Mark is the current musical attraction at the Hoffman House, and he intersperses such casually witty remarks in his programs. He takes most requests in stride, ad libbing a funny even when he doesn't know the tune. But on one night, he threw him completely off his stride.

A customer wanted him to play "Wild Horses" — on the harp. St. George does play the harp, but this time he had to resort to his other instruments, electric organ and piano.

Sometimes during the evening, Mark plays all three at once, at which times he has to forego his humor to concentrate on performing on the harp with his left hand, the piano with his right, and the organ with his feet — one foot on the pedals, the other on the volume control.

He's an enthusiastic about the harp as the Milwaukeeans are about baseball, and he will give a lucid little lecture on the instrument at the drop of a baton.

Born in Florida, he studied at Little Rock, Ark., and played in the Little Rock Symphony orchestra. He has done concert as well.

as night club work, and has extended his versatility to the celestine and vibraphone. One of the country's few swing baristas, he has adapted the Grandjany system (one of four methods of playing the instrument) to his rhythm music.

St. George came to the Hoffman House from the Tropics room of Hotel Phillips, Kansas City, Mo., where he was one of the few artists to win an extended engagement.

ON THE AIR: "Guidance in the Madison High Schools" will be the subject of a radio program over WIBA Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. On the panel will be William Haugan, Central, Catherine Collins, East, and Betty Perigo, West. Using a fictional pupil, they will explain the guidance services provided in the high schools to meet the needs of young teenagers.

DAVE SCHREINER: The story of Dave Schreiner, one of the Wisconsin's football stars and war heroes, will be told on the state radio network's School of the Air "Wisconsin Almanac" at 1:30 p. m. today.

The Lancaster man, co-captain of one of the greatest teams in Wisconsin's football history, sponsored his team to many victories back in 1942 with such players as Mark Hoskins, Bob Baumann, Elroy Hirsch, Andy Anderson, and Pat Harder. Hoskins was co-captain with Schreiner that year.

"Pass Completed," the story of Schreiner, was written for the Wisconsin School of the Air by Helen Frey, and produced by Karl Schmidt.
