

Bill Doudna's
SPOTLIGHT
'Gramercy Ghost'

TIP O' THE MORNING: Youthful Brandon DeWilde is likely to show up soon as star of a dramatic series on radio or television, or both.

LOU DORLAG will portray a girl who inherits a spectre in the Madison Theater Guild's next production. The play, "Gramercy Ghost," will be the organization's last show of the season. Dates are May 7 and 8 in West high school and May 9 in East high school.

Norman Michie will play Nathaniel Coombes, a ghost dating back to the American Revolution, and Bernard Schlanger and Henry Buslee will be young men competing for the ghost-owner's hand.

Others in the cast will be Shirley Bruns, Les Meinhardt, Marjorie Schaffer, Louis M. Rapoport, William Shumway, Susan Fein, Ruth Foster, and Jeanne Remus Neher.

The Guild will begin exchanging season coupons for reservations on April 27.

VISITORS: Pupils from the sixth grade of Madison's Lincoln school will watch the April 30 "News of the Week" program as it is broadcast over WHA and the state FM network from Radio Hall.

ON THE AIR: David Montagu, Madison violinist, will be soloist on "Symphonic Adventure," NBC network program at 1:30 p. m. Saturday. He will play the Mendelssohn concerto with the NBC Concert orchestra directed by Joseph Gallicchio.

This program usually is not carried by either WIBA or WMAQ.

DRAMA OF POETRY: A series of programs presented by Emeritus Prof. Harry Glicksman of the University of Wisconsin and the Radio Hall Players is being broadcast regularly by member stations of the National Assn. of Educational Broadcasters. It is "Drama of Poetry," heard here at 9 a. m. Mondays on WHA and at 7:30 p. m. Wednesdays on WHA-FM.

The series purpose, Glicksman has explained, is "to demonstrate the quality of poetry, to illustrate the basic principle that great imaginative literature radiates dramatic beauty and power identifiable with everyday realities, even though the literature may not be dramatic in form."

'Mozart City' Preparing for Festival

SALZBURG — (ONA)— This historic, picturesque musical shrine city is preparing for another season as host to thousands of tourists who are drawn to the area each summer by three main attractions.

Its colorful appearance and richness of historical associations in themselves would make Salzburg a natural drawing card for travelers. In addition, it serves as a take-off point for the nearby Salzammergut, Austria's charming and gently-rolling lake country, and most important, it is the site of the world famous Salzburg Festival.

The composer Mozart was born in Salzburg and the festival was originally conceived in his honor.

However, the festival is not exclusively musical. In fact, it was a Max Reinhardt production of the morality play "Everyman" in Salzburg's Cathedral square in 1920 which may be regarded as the first festival. "Everyman" has been a standard item of Salzburg Festival programs ever since, and is still performed in the uniquely appropriate setting of the square facing the cathedral.

Eventually, the festival was expanded to its present extent, which comprises a full month's program of operas, plays, orchestral concerts, ballets, solo recitals and concerts of chamber and sacred music, with two or three performances on some days.

A special theater, the Festival House, has been built to house the grander productions, and an open air arena with the odd name of the Rocky Riding School was established in Hellbrunn Park, near the city.

The festival this year will take place from July 26 to August 31. Operas to be presented will include three of Mozart's, "Così fan tutte," "Don Giovanni," and "The Marriage of Figaro," as well as Richard Strauss' "Der Rosenkavalier" and the world premiere of "The Trial" by Gottfried Einem.

In addition to the perennial "Everyman" there will be one other straight drama, Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar." Eight concerts will be given by the Vienna Philharmonic orchestra under the baton of such conductors as Wilhelm Furtwaengler and Bruno Walter. The ballet of the National Opera of Paris will give two performances. Soloists scheduled are Yehudi Menuhin and Wilhelm Backhaus.

On Saturday night, May 2, at 8 p. m. the Mosinee high school choir will appear in the First Methodist Church at Wisconsin Rapids. Sunday morning, May 3, at the Plainfield Methodist church; Sunday night, New London public school; Monday morning, Manitowish high school, and Monday afternoon, Horicon high school.

On Saturday night, May 2, at 8 p. m. the Mosinee high school choir will appear in the First Methodist Church at Wisconsin Rapids. Sunday morning, May 3, at the Plainfield Methodist church; Sunday night, New London public school; Monday morning, Manitowish high school, and Monday afternoon, Horicon high school.
