Strapless Gown Battle

OXFORD, N. C. (UP)—A pastor who has no objection to strapless evening gowns Sunday replaced the Rev. Homer Nichols at the West Oxford Baptist church after a bitter dispute over the "immodest" trend on women's fashions.

The Rev. E. G. U sry said that "so long as people are dressed decently, I have no objection to what they wear in church. Besides, the law won't allow them to go out any other way."

The tift started when pretty Ruth Hedgepeth announced that her attendants would wear strapless evening gowns with filmy net stoles at her May 17 wedding.

Nichols, pastor of the church for the past 13 months, told her he would not permit bare-shouldered dresses, Miss Hedgepeth said.

West continues spades, South leads a low club and allows West to hold the trick with his queen. West continues spades, and South wins again and once more allows West to hold a club trick with the king.

Regardless of what West does now, declarer can win, cash dummy's ace of clubs. This is interesting to note that South loses his contract if he is in too much of a hurry to take dummy's ace of clubs. As a result of this play, East would win a trick soner or later with the jack of clubs. This would permit him to return a heart through South's king, whereupon the defenders would take three heart tricks.

He was to hold the trick with his queen. West continues spades, South leads a low club and allows West to hold the trick with the jack of clubs. The clubs.

The strape of clubs. The clubs.

This would permit him to the clubs. This would permit him to return a heart through South's king, whereupon the defenders would take three heart tricks.

He woold resign if the gowns were permitted. After congregational approval of the wedding attire,

When she refused his request, approval of the wedding attire, Nichols called for a vote from the congregation on the issue and said atrode out of the church.
