TIP O' THE MORNING: That "Symphonic Adventure" broadcast with David Montagu as soloist, once postponed, is scheduled for 1:30 p. m. Saturday on WIBA and WIBA-FM.

CHARLOTTE WOOD, emerita professor of English at the University of Wisconsin, was elected president of the Madison Art Association at its annual meeting in the Memorial Union Thursday night. Miss Wood, who has been vice-president, succeeded Frederick L. Carpenter.

Carlisle P. Runge was elected vice-president. Allan Hackworthy was named treasurer to succeed Ronald Mattox, and Mrs. Page Johnson was reelected secretary.

New directors chosen were William Kaeser, Mrs. Timothy Brown, and Hackworthy. Carpenter becomes ex-officio member of the board.

At the same meeting, the Madison Art Association elected a board of directors to take over the work of planning for a Madison art center which, for the past year, has been carried on by a small group of incorporators.

Elected were Mrs. Julian Harris and Francis Bowman, for five years each; Mrs. K. L. Puestow and R. E. Langer, four years; Mrs. Walter Frautschi and Harry Steenbock, three years; Mrs. A. C. Bolz and Ronald Mattox, two years, and Mrs. H. Kent Tenney and Myron Stevens, one year.

Langer announced that the foundation now has 180 members and that it has received $500 from a fund set up as a memorial to the late George Chatterton, former president of the art association.

Miss Wood read a tribute to the late Lucy Irene Buck, public school art supervisor and former association president, in whose memory a fund is being raised to continue summer art scholarships for junior high school pupils.

PHILHARMONIC CHORUS: Sparkling, witty music marked the second half of the Spring concert of the Philharmonic chorus of Madison at West High school Thursday night. Unfortunately, I missed the first half, which listeners told me was even better—particularly a Brahms motet, "Wherefore Hath the Light Been Granted."

Fine balance between the men's and women's voices and forthright handling of dissonances were achieved by the chorus under the expert guidance of Bernard H. Westlund, who added to the program's brightness with drily humorous program notes.

Women's voices formed a light obbligato to the men's in Gustav Holst's setting of a Cornish folk song, "I Love My Love." Apt dissonances illustrated the text vividly in Delio Joio's "Madrigal," and the chorus negotiated the intricacies of Britten's "Old Joe Has Gone Fishing" valiantly.

Three Hindemith songs and a group of madrigals completed the portion which I heard. From Hindemith came the serene "The Doe," the short and bright "Since All is Passing," and the airy, lacy "Orchard."

The madrigals included some humorous sound effects and a snappy dialog.

For an encore, the chorus sang in Delio Joio's "Madrigal," and the chorus negotiated the intricacies of Britten's "Old Joe Has Gone Fishing" valiantly.

Christmas Eve." It was almost appropriate for the weather.

MUSIC FESTIVAL: Elementary and junior high school pupils of the Madison public schools will present the annual Spring Music festival at 3 p. m. Sunday, May 10, in the University of Wisconsin stock pavilion. Rehearsals will be held daily next week at Central high school, with a full-scale dress rehearsal at the pavilion May 9.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: A former Madison announcer, Fahey Flynn, who is now one of WBBM's top newscasters, will be moderator for a panel at the Chicago Junior Association of Commerce traffic safety luncheon May 5.

Mayor George Forster will present a scroll for Bob Hope to 11-year-old Lonnie Malm of the town of Blooming Grove immediately after Hope's broadcast honoring her this morning. The ceremony will be in the city hall. Hope's show will be on WIBA at 10:45.

J. Russell Paxton will conduct the University of Wisconsin Men's chorus in a concert at 4 p. m. Sunday, May 10, in the Wisconsin Union theater. Soloists will be Donn Weiss, Jane Bandy, Helen Starr, Lawrence McCormick, Ruth Zerler, and Stanley Stueger.

Lorraine Feigenbaum, East Chicago, Ind., will give her senior piano recital at 8 p. m. Friday in Music hall. She studies with Prof. Louise Lockwood Carpenter at the University of Wisconsin music school.

Marian Anderson, contralto, will headline the Janesville Civic Music association's concert series for 1953-54. The organization will start a membership campaign this month. Clergymen who will appear on "your Pastor Speaks," the all-faith religious program broadcast nightly at 10:15 over WIBA and WIBA-FM, have been announced for next week as follows:

Monday, the Rev. Jerome Mersberger, Immaculate Heart of Mary parish; Tuesday, the Rev. Charles A. Puls, Luther Memorial church; Wednesday, the Rev. Roy Zimmer, Christ Presbyterian; Thursday, the Rev. Joseph Gabriels, Holy Redeemer; and Friday, the Rev. Joseph Washington, Mt. Zion Baptist.

Jon Arthur of "Big Jon and Sparkie" (ABC-WISC) is the father of a 9½-pound daughter, Debora Ruth, who was born last week at a Cincinnati hospital. She's the Arthur's fourth child.

Edward R. Morrow will make two trips to England this summer. He'll be there to help cover the coronation for CBS Radio, then will fly back to the U. S. on June 15, Mr. and Mrs. Morrow and their son, Charles, will go to Cornwall for a three-week vacation.

Dr. George Mead has been appointed conductor of the Trinity choir of St. Paul's chapel, Concord, N. H., which is heard Sunday on CBS. He succeeds the late Andrew Tietjen.

John MacVane, former war correspondent for NBC and International News Service, will join the news staff of the ABC network June 15.

Dick Powell has signed a contract with RKO Radio Pictures as a producer. He made his debut as a director with the same firm.

Thor Johnson, conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra, will return to California this summer as music director of the Ojai festivals in Ventura county.
