summer of 1950. Eve was well known, but you could hardly call her famous.

Then she heard a song called "Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Me" in a small night club. She liked it, and cut a demonstration record which she submitted to several disc companies.

One of the recipients was Fred Amel, assistant talent executive in Rodgers and Hammerstein's West coast office. He liked the voice, arranged to meet Eve, and became her manager.

Amel raised enough money to make a master record of the song. Then he had her change her professional name to Karen Chandler "to give her a fresh start."

It worked. Coral Records signed her to a contract, and issued her "Hold Me, Thrill Me, Kiss Men," which within a few months became a top seller.

Latest news is that she'll be guest on the Eddie Fisher show (NBC-WIBA) next month.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: "Junior Miss," starring Barbara Whiting, will be the summer replacement for Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy on CBS-WKOW.

Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians again will take over the Jack Benny spot for the summer. Benny's sponsor has renewed his contract for another year, effective in September.

Frank Lovejoy rose from sergeant in "Breakthrough" to major in "Force of Arms" and lieutenant colonel in "Retreat, Hell!" Now he has been broken 3. Wis.

TIP OF THE MORNING: Arthur Godfrey may return to radio soon, but rumor says he stays away from television for a while because of its greater physical demands.

When you hear Karen Chandler's voice on radio or records, you'll probably think it sounds familiar. You'll be right.

Until a few months ago, she was Eve Young, who sang with Joe Reichman and Benny Goodman, on records, and on the National Broadcasting Co. (NBC) network.

The singer was born in Rexbury, Ida., as Eva Nadauld. When she became a professional vocalist, she changed her name. As Eve Young she recorded "Nature Boy," "Happy Talk," "A Cock-eyed Optimist," and other ditties for Victor; was the "singling bridesmaid" on N. B. C.'s "Honey-moon in New York," and had her own show—bearing her name—on NBC in the
