TIP O' THE MORNING: Beginning June 8, NBC's Chicago staff will have its first woman announcer. She's Nancy Lee Terry, formerly of Cleveland, O. She'll work on both radio and television.

* * *

HOUR AFTER HOUR of radio and television time Tuesday will be devoted to events of Coronation Day in London. In Madison, broadcasting will begin at 3:15 a.m., when WIBA will carry the first National Broadcasting Co. (NBC) reports from London. The station will stay on the air all night tonight, instead of signing off at its usual time, midnight.

Stations WISC and WKOW will go on the air at 4:30 a.m.

The NBC account of the procession from Buckingham palace to Westminster abbey the crowning of Queen Elizabeth II, (which is expected about 5:25 a.m. Madison time), and the return to the palace will be on WIBA from 3:15 to 5:45 a.m. Reporting will be Henry Cassidy, in the abbey; George Hicks, just outside, and Morgan Beatty and Merrill Mueller, along the line of march.

Columbia's description will be on WKOW from 4:30 to 6 a.m., with Edward R. Murrow reporting from inside the abbey and Robert Trout, Howard K. Smith, Ned Calmer, and Paul Niven covering the other parts of the scene.

The ABC report will be carried by WISC from 4:30 to 7:30 a. m., with descriptions by Mary Margaret McBride, Ted Malone, Blivens Davis, F. B. Opper, Robert Sturdevant, Jack Parker, Howard Marshall, and John Snagge.

From 6:45 a. m. to 7:45 a. m., WIBA will broadcast a condensation of the direct NBC reports for the benefit of late risers.

Other coronation broadcasts:

8 to 9 a. m.—Conclusion of ceremonies, procession to Buckingham palace—WKOW.

11:15 to 11:45 a. m.—Continuation of NBC reports—WIBA.

2 to 3:15 p. m.—"Long Live the Queen" address by Queen Elizabeth, talks by Sir Winston Churchill and other prime ministers, closeups of visitors, interviews with participants. Narration by Robert Donat—WISC.

2:45 to 3:15 p. m.—The queen's address and review of the day—WKOW.

9:15 to 10 p. m.—Review of the day, including rebroadcast of Queen Elizabeth's address—WKOW.

8:30 to 9:30 p. m.—Coronation Highlights: detailed review with Hazel Markel, Helen Hall, others.

Television coverage will begin at 3:15 a. m. on WBBM-TV and at 3:30 a. m. on WNBQ. Visual features will include still photographs transmitted by facsimile radio, with NBC reporting it will have them on the air within 5 minutes after they are taken.

Royal Air Force jet planes will speed pictures to Goose Bay, Labrador, where two fast planes will pick them up. They will be flown to Boston to be put on the NBC network as soon as possible—any time after noon, the net says.

Definite schedules call for films at 4 p. m. on WTMJ-TV, WNBQ, and WBBM-TV, with later pictures on WTMJ-TV and WNBQ at 8:30 and on WBBM-TV at 9.

9 LUMBERMEN KILLED

SAPPORO CITY, Hokkaido (AP)—At least nine lumbermen were killed Sunday when thousands of tons of earth buried their camp near Tsubetsu on this northernmost Japanese home island. Seven more men were missing. The 16 workers were asleep in a cabin when a 100-yard strip of valley slope, loosened by days of heavy rains roared down on the camp.

WTMJ-TV Is Ready to Switch Channels

MILWAUKEE (AP) — WTMJ-TV is almost ready to switch from Channel 3 to Channel 4 and put into use its new 1,035 foot tower, antenna and transmitter, Walter J. Damm, general manager of the Journal Company's radio department, said Saturday.

The switch is expected to give immediate improvement to in reception of WTMJ-TV in its fringe areas, up to 80 or 90 miles.

Damm said the station will ask the Federal Communications Commission on June 8 for permission to make engineering tests of its new equipment on Channel 4.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

When a bridge player falls flat on his nose in his play of a bridge hand it is usually tactful to look the other way. A bridge columnist who wants to keep his friends may name the hero of a hand but not the villain. Today's hand is exceptional because the joke is on Dick Frey, and he tells the story himself.

"This happened more than 15 years ago," Frey relates, "when a French team captained by Pierre Albarran came to this country to play some team matches.

At that time Ely Culbertson and I played some set games against Albarran and his favorite partner, Sophocle Venizelos.

"When I reached a contract of three no-trump with this hand, I felt very pleased. Albarran opened the ten of spades from the West hand, and I looked at the dummy to count up my tricks. I could obviously take three spades, two hearts and four diamonds. Hence the contract was in no danger.

"It was equally obvious to me that I could easily make one or more overtricks with the clubs. I am not ordinarily a pig, but we were playing for very high stakes, and I saw no reason to neglect those nice juicy overtricks.

"I therefore won the first trick in dummy with the king of spades and led the ten of clubs for a finesse. East naturally played the six of clubs, I followed with the nine and Albarran unhesitatingly dropped the deuce of clubs from the West hand.

"I thought of the value of the overtrick, decided that I could use a new hat, and led another club from the dummy! I got that sinking feeling in the pit of my stomach when East fumbled for a discard. And I continued to sink as Albarran took the next five tricks with his clubs."

Dick Frey hasn't been playing much tournament bridge lately, but he is one of the greatest bridge players who ever took a finesse. Maybe he'd have been even greater if he had skipped one of those finesses.

CORONATION SHOES

NEW YORK (AP) — Queen Elizabeth has chosen coronation shoes made of gold kid and decorated with a medallion of tiny seed pearls, inspired by the Rose window of France's Chartres Cathedral, a shoe designer said Sunday. Herman Delman said he had learned officially the queen would wear slippers especially designed for her by one of his experts.
